ROSSPORT ALTAR SOCIETY

Following the election of officers, Mrs. Prina Gerow was elected president, Mrs. Camilla Legault Secretary, Mrs. Todesco, Treasurer and Mrs. Schelling vice-president when the Altar Society met for their June meeting, Thursday evening at Mrs. Legault's home.

The treasurers report for the year showed that the cash receipts amounted to $683.38 raised by bingos, draws, donations and penny auctions. The expenditures amounted to $660.43 which was used on bingo prizes, draw prizes, paper, envelopes and stamps, church supplies, janitor and labour wages, mass books cards, furnace repairs, organ repairs, water fees, hose and sprinklers, etc. which left a balance of $22.93.

The members are working towards purchasing a new organ for the church as it was useless to try to keep the present organ in repair as parts are not available on the market today.

Mr. Almos was present to give information on an electric organ which the organization is considering purchasing. Flower bedding plants are to be purchased for the grotto and church borders. Mrs. Gerow presided for the meeting and led in opening and closing prayers.

Mrs. Legault read the minutes and correspondence while Mrs. Todesco presented the financial statement for the month.

Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Kenney audited the books and reported all satisfactory.

Penny Auction plans were finalized. Following adjournment luncheon was served by Mrs. Legault.
