

Schreiber Graduation - cont'd
 ciation. Terri-Lynn Birch welcomed a very large audience and Michael O'Niel gave the valedictory followed by the presentation of awards; pins by Rev. Dye and Mr. T. Quinton; certificates by Mr. A.S. Gordon and Mr. R.A. Cressman. The Womens Institute Award was presented to Terri Morris by Mrs. W. Clemens; the D.R.A. Cressman award to David Richardson by Mr. Cressman; Mr. A.S. Gordon, Chairman of the Lake Superior Board of Education, congratulated the staff and graduates wishing them well.

Betty-Ann McCanna introduced the guest speaker, Mr. W. Klassen, who described this occassion as an opening to the graduates with many adjustments to be made and greater responsibilities accepted. Mrs. R. Mulligan, Principal of Lake Superior High School, offered the formal welcome to the graduates.

An amusing interlude during the programme were several presentations by Mr. D. Robertson of the staff: a trophy to Terri-Lynn Birch for being the best sport on a recent canoe trip; a small jar of sugar to Mrs. Jan McEwen to replenish her seemingly inexhaustible supply; a special sample of native ore to David Courtney; a huge ball of string to Mike Reid to be attached to the school when he leaves with the next outing party and to Tom Quinton, a specially designed paddle of extraordinary size suitable engraved, with which it is hoped he can both cast a line and share the paddling.

The closing remarks by Mr. Cressman noted with appreciation with a large number attending the ceremonies and Rev. Dye offered the closing Prayer followed by O'Canada and the recessional.
