What female physician of Canada's early days encountered so much hostility through prejudice that a special act of the Manitoba legislature had to be passed so that she could practice medicine at her husband's lumbermill?

LEANNE CALDER WED IN TERRACE BAY

Leanne Susan Calder and Phil John Burns were joined in Holy Matrimony on June 30th at 4 p.m. in St. Martin of Tours Roman Catholic Church. Father A. Greengrass officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Leanne is the daughter of Mr. G. Calder, Fort Frances and Mrs. J. Calder, Thunder Bay P. Phil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Burns of Terrace Bay.

Gladioli adorned the altar as the bride was escorted up the aisle by her father. Miss Celine Landry was the organist and Miss Vangie Pineault sang.

The bride was gowned in a floor length white model, fashioned in chiffon over taffeta with long chiffon sleeves, empire waistline, with lace insert and a ribbon bow.

The hem of the gown featured a wide lace panel, softly falling into a train at the back. The Victorian style headress with bouffant veil also had a lace edge. She wore an Ivory rose pendant and ear rings. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies and yellow roses.

The Maid of Honour, Suzanne Theriault wore a long yellow Polyester crepe gown, featuring an A-line skirt, V neckline and Peter Pan collar with an Opal necklace. Her head dress was a yellow floppy brimmed hat and she carried a single white mum set in a lace nosegay arrangement.

The Best man was Bevan Black and ushers were

Rick Hamilton and Leonard Burns.

At a reception held at the home of the groom, Mrs. Calder received wearing a street length blue dress with vest to match and a white rose corsage.

Mrs. Burns also received, in a long pink and black printed gown and white rose corsage

Mr. Alex Marquis gave the toast to the Bride.

Rosalyn Calder circulated the guest book.

The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Florence Fischer, of Schreiber and served to the guests by Leanne and Phil.

For travelling to Duluth and Fort Frances, Leanne donned a pink blouse and purple Palazzo pants, with a yellow rose corsage.

Prior to her marriage, Leanne was the guest of honour at two showers given by Mrs. Paul Rochan and Mrs. Cleon Smith.

The couple are residing at 212 Ontario Street, Schreiber.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Corrine Brooks, Arlene and Vicki O'Connell, Sioux Lookout; Ray and Wilma Defay, Rogger and Gail Fournier and Irene Bolan, Thunder Bay.
