This summer marked the 24th Annual Odd Fellows United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth. As these Educational Bus Tours travel across the Great North American Continent the young people have an opportunity to increase their education and to witness Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at work. These young people represent many different Nationalities, religions and schools and are chosen for their outstanding achievements.

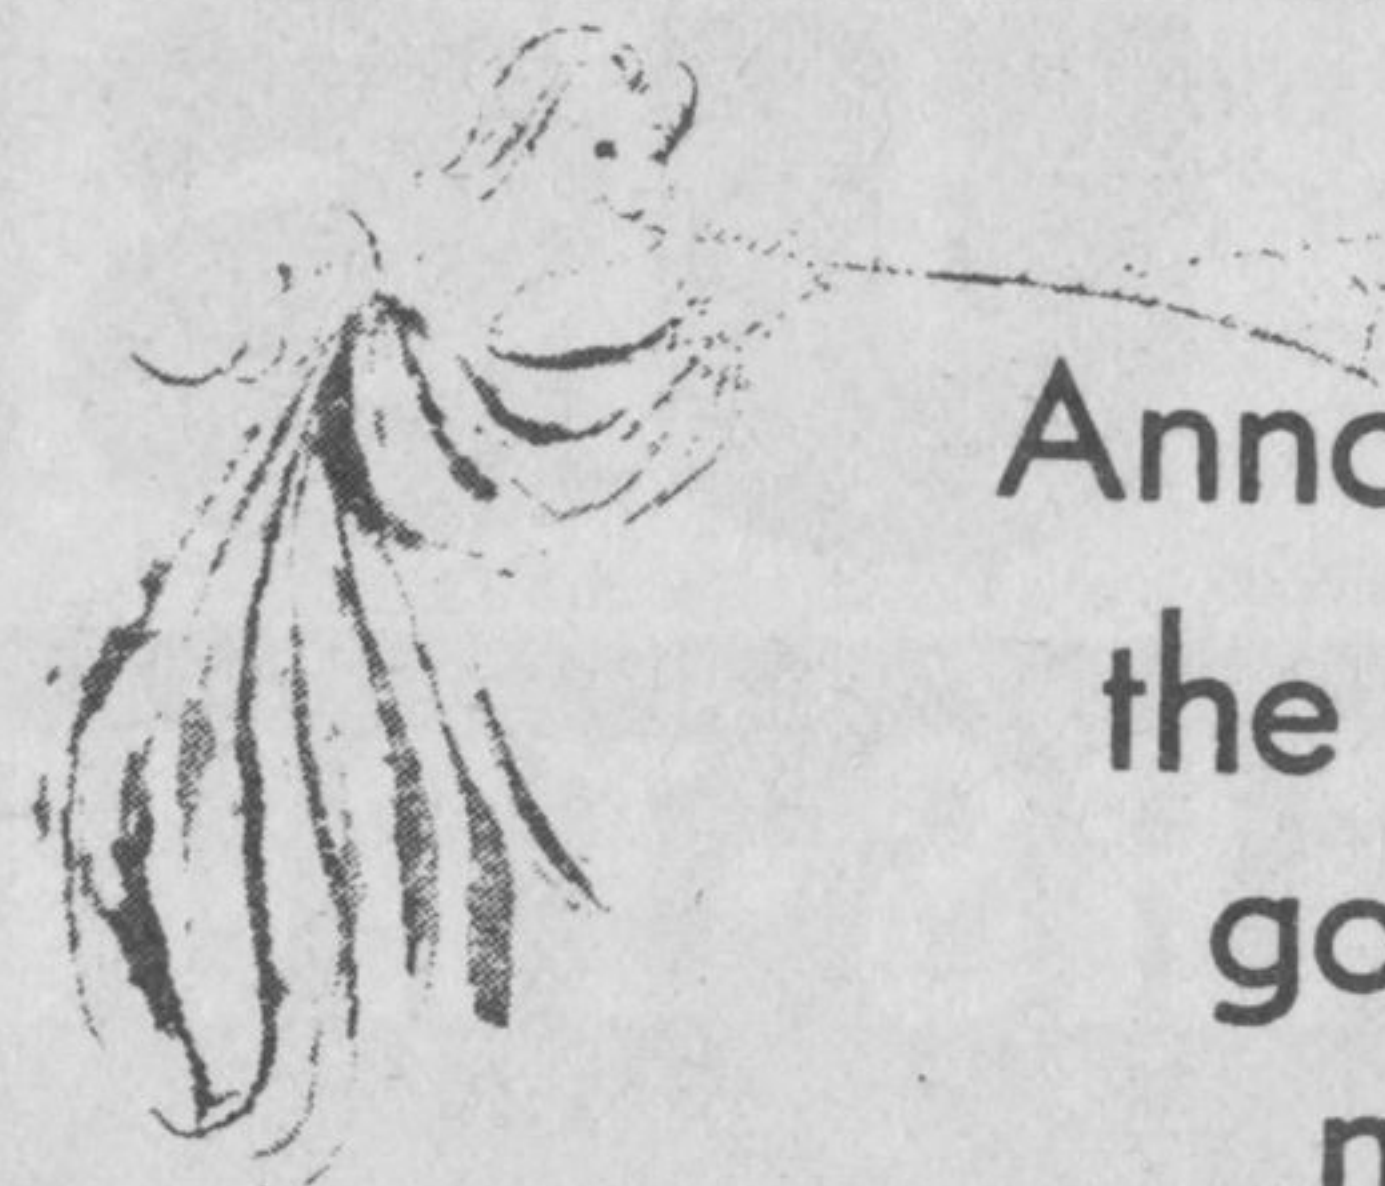

This year there were 36 students plus one male leader, two female leaders and the bus driver. Head table guests were Mrs. Mavis Slater, Immediate Past President, Rebekah Assembly of Ontario; George Birch, N.G. of Schreiber Lodge 402 who also acted as Master of Ceremonies; Mrs. Lil Harris, V.G. Ruby Lodge 279; Rev. Father F.J. Meyer; Rev. Arthur Chabot of Marathon, who said Grace and the Benediction respectively; Councillor R. Krause representing Schreiber Municipality and Roy Bray, Reeve of Terrace Bay. Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, Leader of White Rock, B.C.; Mrs. Mabel Hornett, Leader of Alix Alberta and H. Kapusiayk, Leader of Weyburn, Sask.

Members of Ruby Lodge arranged and served the hot turkey dinner.

The head table guests brought greetings and spoke briefly to the students, whose leaders responded and the students were introduced by H. Kapusiayk. Each student gave their name and the town they were representing. The bus tour continued on to Sault Ste. Marie where other Lodges would supply supper and sleeping accommodations as they journeyed on their way.
