

NEW ENGLISH CLASS

The most jubilant graduates in many years was the New Canadian English Class taught by Katie Verdone. Many of the seventeen members, of both Schreiber and Terrace Bay were already proficient in English but interested in perfecting their pronunciation and enlarging their vocabulary. The group celebrated the end of their winter classes with a social evening with many national dishes enjoyed.

INCREASES IN BENEFITS

Increases in the amount of benefits payable under Ontario's Workmen's Compensation system are expected to add approximately $12 million a year to the total now paid to the province's injured workman and their dependents. The increases in cash benefits and in pensions became effective on July 1st under amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act approved by the Ontario Legislature. Ontario workmen now have the highest maximum compensation levels in Canada.

These benefits apply to persons involved in accidents occurring on or after July 1st, 1973.

Among major items effected by the increases are: The earnings maximum is increased from $9,000 to $10,000 annually for accidents occurring on and after July 1, 1973.
