GUIDE AND BROWNIE NEWS

Four Girl Guides along with Captain Pam Jones who was on staff and her family were invited to camp at Polly Lake, Nipigon, in July with Mrs. Glenna Clearwater. Guides from Red Rock, Marathon, Nipigon, Terrace Bay and Longlac were at camp and a friendly atmosphere spread through the camp as each group was welcomed to T.V. land-Tommy Hunters Haven and the Partridge Paradise of course were the most musical groups. Outdoor adventure and outdoor cook badges were earned by the Guides and their Junior Campers Badge was earned by attending a 7 day Guide camp-the early morning breakfasts that had to be cooked for the 'outdoor cook' badge had to be seen to be belived and the Guides working on these certainly found out how to prepare food and keep a fire burning on a beach at 7:30

One phase of 'outdoor adventure' was to find three constellations in the stars, so with much excitement and shrieks, the Guides were turned out of their warm snug beds at 11:30 p.m. to troupe down to an advantage spot beside a quiet still lake to study the stars. It was a beautiful night, and the Milky-way was very clear. After a while each girl was able to find her constellations and with much reluctance the ghost like figures of nightie clad girls flitted along the moonlit trail back to camp. These badges earned, will be presented at the beginning of the Guide season in September.

Patricia Paukstys, Leslie McBride, Melody Fisher and Melanie Boyd were the Guides attending.

Also in July four Brownies went to Three Fingers Lake, Marathon to a Brownie Pack holiday. This was the first time that Brownies have been under canvas and it was a great success, the camp was a 'Space' theme with each tent being named after a planet and during the camp Brown Owls Joanne Taniwa and Mary MacDonald from Marathon worked with all the Brownies on a new badge 'Space', - great fun was had building space homes and writing the most hilarious stories on "my space trip". Imaginations really ran wild on these, and the leaders were truly amazed at the thought and ingenuity that these young people had when asked to perform a skit of a "Brownie meeting on the Moon", the skit was performed on the last evening and many visitors were present.

With so much fun and enjoyment had by the Brownies we hope that this camp has set a precedent for the future.

Joyce Kurylo, Sandra Aylward, Janice Liebrock and Barbara Churney were the Brownies attending.

The L.A. to Guides and Brownies of Terrace Bay have presented the Guides with a big new tent. The Guide and Brownie Leaders appreciate the support that the L.A. continually give them and plan to make full use of the tent next year.
