

FALL FAIR

The most happy event of the year, for most house wives occurs this year on Thursday, September 6th from 7 to 10 p.m. and Friday, September 7th from 7 to 10:30 p.m. and Saturday September 8th from 1:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. with no admission charge. This popular event is largely made possible by the generous donations of the community in general.

An amusing feature is a pleasure of the house wives surveying the space available through their donations for the fair. This is only equal by their dismay when husbands and family return home proudly displaying the articles they have bought which someone else has discarded!

On Thursday evening the public may inspect the display of all articles and exhibits, enjoying lunch, coffee and donuts as they consider possible purchases.

On Friday the giant auction will be held when furniture, electrical appliances, books, radios, stereos, stoves, heaters, fridges, bedding, boots, curtains, floor coverings and so forth will be sold, under the auctioneers gavel. There will also be lunch, pop, coffee and so forth.

On Saturday at 1:30 p.m. there will be a sale of baking, sewing, clothing, toys, vegetables and various novelties with a smorgasbord supper from 5 to 6:30 p.m. And from 7 to 9 p.m. the penny auction will take place.

There will again be a display of articles made by the Retarded Childrens Association of this area offered for sale and space available for the White Elephant Table to which anyone can donate articles to be sold to help promote this needed work.

PLAYGROUND NEWS:

Last week was highlighted by boat tours at Rosspport, conducted by Mr. R. Kenney, for the 8-14 year old children. The tours were fantastic and everyone who went on them was glad to have the opportunity to see the Rosspport area and to learn some very interesting local history. Special thanks to Mr. Kenney for taking us on the tours.

It was Unbirthday time for all of the 5 and 6 year old children and the leaders on Friday, and in the afternoon they had a party to celebrate the fact that it was nobody's birthday. After a few party games, everyone enjoyed a lunch of sandwiches and cookies, topped off

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

English, Irish and Scottish in descent, Geordie, five, is healthy and active. He has light brown hair, blue eyes and fair skin. An operation has corrected a turned eye and he wears glasses to maintain the correction. He is a light sleeper, always waking early.

Geordie is curious and adventurous. He is full of questions and likes to go exploring. He mixes well with other children, being happy to visit or be visited, but is not keen on rough games. He'd rather ride his tricycle.

Geordie is considered to be of average intelligence but his performance in kindergarten was below average. This youngster is perhaps a bit immature and it takes him a while to get accustomed to a new routine, like school. He is usually cooperative with adults, however, and responds well to kind explanations and firmness.

Geordie needs warm, understanding parents who will give him stimulation without pressure, firm guidance and a great deal of individual attention. It is especially important that his adopting father will enjoy sharing many activities with his small son.

To inquire about adopting Geordie, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.
