

Schreiber Town Topics - continued .....

The unusual career this year has been chosen by Bob Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martyn Ryan. Bob, after many written tests and personal interviews has accepted a four year course at the Coast Guard College, at Point Edward some four miles out of Sydney, N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eickmeier of Mitchell, Ont. are visiting their many old friends in Schreiber - while the guests of Mrs. Martha Huller.

Mr. Tony DeLeo and family who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy DeLeo have returned to Toronto.

Miss Muriel Nesbitt of the Soo spent the holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Nesbitt accompanied by Miss Yvonne Munro and Miss Linda Yeo.

We regret that inadvertently Mrs. D.H. Brown's name was used instead of that of Mrs. J.D. Courtney who was the guest honoured at the farewell party hosted by Mrs. D.Q. Hamilton

Congratulations are extended to Miss Linda Costa of Schreiber who won second prize of a CCM Accessory Kit in the recent Elmer Safety Contest held in the Terrace Bay News.

A linen shower was held Friday evening at Mrs. Lester Legault's home, honouring Miss Diane Campbell bride-elect of October. Receiving with the bride were her mother Mrs. Francis Campbell, her aunt Mrs. Lester Legault and her sister Mary Clare Campbell. As Diane and her mother entered they were presented with corsages of garden flowers. Dining room hostesses were Beverly Legault and Joan Campbell.

The living room was decorated in white and pink streamers, flowers, bells and balloons. The guest of honour sat in a decorated chair and was presented with a decorated basket of gifts. Her sister Joan assisted in opening the gifts while Beverly Legault decorated a picture hat with the ribbons and bows. Mary Clare Campbell attended the guest book.

A buffet luncheon was enjoyed supplied by the hostess her aunt Mrs. L. Legault, from an attractive decorated table centered by the brides cake made by her aunt Mrs. Felix Legault. It was topped by the ornament from her parent's wedding cake and cut and served by the bride-elect. Humorous contests were enjoyed and Mrs. Joyce Lanigan provided background music on the guitar.

Those present were Mrs. Esther Seppala, Lorraine Seppala, Mrs. Anne Todesco, Mrs. Felix Legault, Mrs. Nancy Marquis, Mrs. Marion Reid, Mrs. Francis Campbell, Mrs. Gwen Gerow, Alice Bouchard, Joan Campbell, Mrs. Doris Marcella, Mary Clare Campbell, Beverly Legault, Mrs. Camilla Legault, Maxine Hubelit, Mrs. Edith Ibey, Mrs. Josephine Kenney, Mrs. Prina Gerow, Mrs. Joyce Lanigan, Mrs. Daphne Henderson, Mrs. Doris Legault, Mrs. Mary Schelling, Mrs. Kathleen Bouchard, Mrs. Audrey Nicol.

A mock wedding was portrayed by Mrs. Bouchard as the bride, Maxine Hubelit the groom and Mrs. Camilla Legault the Minister. They were dressed in outlandish wearing apparel and wigs with the groom puffing a cigar.

Tornado Havoc

The average tornado in the United States wreaks its havoc along a path of about 4 miles. But in 1917, one twister left a trail of destruction for nearly 300 miles through Illinois and Indiana.
