I am what's known as a back-slider
 Who needs a swift kick in the back side
 My will power had gone down the drain
 And pounds I had lost I began to gain
 I was eating like there was no end
 Until I talked to a TOPS friend.
 Come back and join us she said
 I agreed and reach the conclusion
 That TOPS is the only solution
 To end my weight pollution.

SPORTS SLANTS

- By Ray Shank

Just about dis 'n' dat:
 Jimmy 'The Greek' Snyder, the world-renowned Las Vegas, has made Bobby Riggs a 5-2 favourite to defeat the women's hope, Billie Jean King, in their September 20th, $100,000, best of five sets tennis grudge match. The 'Battle of the Sexes' definitely has a lot of appeal, since promoters of the event are selling the best seats at the Houston Astrodome for $100 a crack. Other tickets are scaled at $20, $15, $10, and $6

The way they're developing baseball players in Taiwan, I'm afraid to think what would happen if the so-called World Series champs from the U.S. would be matched against the best from Taiwan. I kind of think the American dream that teams like Baltimore Orioles, Los Angeles Dodgers or Oakland Athletics (last year's World Series winners) are the best in the world would be shattered by the Taiwanese. Let's face it, the Americans can't be such hot shots when you consider that the Little World Series -- for 13 to 15-year-olds -- has been won by Taiwan the last three years. The Taiwan nine won this year's Little World Series at Williamsport, Pa. in easy fashion a few weeks ago, scoring 57 runs in three games and not allowing a single run. Not only that. The Taiwan pitchers didn't give up a hit in those three championship games. In the opening game of the tournament, a young fellow named
