1973 MEN'S CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

The Annual Men's Club Championship Tournament was won this year by Tony Costa. The tournament as usual ran two days, 18 holes a day, during the first weekend of September highlighting the near end of another year of golf.

After the first day of golf K. Hanley was leading with T. Costa and P. Spadoni trailing. The tables turned after the first nine holes the next day when Tony held a 4 stroke lead over both K. Hanley and P. Spadoni. It looked for a while that Tony was going to run away with it but Kenny Hanley kept shaving strokes off and on the 18th hole sunk a 25 foot putt to force a playoff.

A good gallery followed both Tony and Kenny to the 19th hole for a sudden-death playoff. Tony finished it on the first hole of playoff getting a par while Kenny got a boggie.
