citizens were sensitive and responsive to questions regarding assistance or advice. And that he would appreciate being kept informed of the local Club's progress and aims.

And he thanked the Club for bestowing honorary memberships on him and Mrs. Stokes.

It was agreed to authorize the executive to conduct normal business, bringing a report to each general meeting, in an effort to shorten the time of the general meetings.

Cyril Sparkes was elected treasurer - replacing Iris Lidkea who has resigned.

Ida Krause reported the social evenings in aid of the club were being generously supported and that Inez McKeVitt had donated an afghan to be raffled.

Harry Costall, building committee chairman, reported progress on the renovations, but added the removal of the Bank's safe still poses a problem, and, he's having difficulty in contacting workers interested in other repairs required.

Kay Verdone reported there are now 143 members in the club.

Hearty rounds of applause were given to Alex Gordon, who had driven many members without cars, to the dinner, and, to the Anglican Church Women who catered for it.

The Commisso orchestra played for dancing, following the dinner.

FIREMEN'S BALL

The Schreiber Fire Brigade are holding their annual masquerade ball on October 26th, a cabaret dance, in the high school, beginning at 9 p.m. with costume judging shortly after midnight. There will also be the generous cash door prize.

This is one community event to which everyone contributes whether they attend the festivities or not, in grateful acknowledgement of the security given by the fire fighters.

Schreiber has a grim history of fires: Jan. 28th on the front Street the Queen's Hotel, the McCuaig block, the Beamish Store, a tailor shop, candy shop and a dwelling were destroyed; In 1911 the King Edward Hotel on the west side of the town went down; In 1919 the rink burned; in 1917 the C.P.R. station; in the 1920's the C.P.R. Boarding House and the Webb Block; in 1924 Message's Store, the McCuaig Block and part of the Bank of Montreal; in 1957 Birchwood Motors, with apartments above it, and in 1962 the Mayfair Hotel burned, with no account of the private dwellings which also were destroyed by fire.

From the first fire protection, a hand drawn reel of hose, to the modern equipment used by an alert and constantly studying group of members paid a very nominal fee, now headed by Chief, Peter Doig, now belong and take an active interest in the Thunder Bay Mutual Fire Aid Association.

Masked contestants come from far-away to attend this particular dance in Schreiber.
