

MINIQUIZ

on Canada's Great People
BY RAY IRELAND

What daring airmen made our nation's first bush flight in 1920 (Winnipeg — The Pas) by completing the final 89 miles of their gruelling 500-mile, 2-day trip all because of the generosity of a Chinese laundryman who gave them some gas?

your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: October 14 to October 21, 1973

- ARIES
Mar. 21 - Apr. 19
Most members of your sign could go through this week — far too preoccupied with thoughts of physical properties. One other thing, don't change your romance pattern.
- TAURUS
Apr. 20 - May 20
Unexpected help is coming your way. Keep one thing in mind, aid from the opposite sex will have strings attached.
- GEMINI
May 21 - June 20
A showdown, that's not necessarily an open break, should take place. Your chart clearly indicates the consequences to be extremely favorable in the long haul.
- MOONCHILD
June 21 - July 22
This week's cosmic cycle brings a strong warning. From this point on, take a good hard look at your surroundings. You're involved in a situation that needs objective analysis.
- LEO
July 23 - Aug. 22
In some cases a lie might function as well as the truth, you think! You face a period of stretching facts.
- VIRGO
Aug. 23 - Sept. 22
You're wide open for "get rich schemes" and easy payment plans. Tighten your hold on a buck, during this week's cosmic cycle.
- LIBRA
Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
Look for long hidden enemies to make overt moves. Prepare for the defense of your job, task, mission or project. Guard against complicity.
- SCORPIO
Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
For most members of your sign, there will be a couple of bad, very bad days. Then, comes the silver lining — it's all that simple.
- SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
Your insight, E.S.P., intuition or whatever, is at a high frequency. The point? It's an excellent time to play your hunches.
- CAPRICORN
Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
Unknowingly, it's possible for you to betray the confidence of a friend. How? By discussing his or her personal problems at large.
- AQUARIUS
Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
Don't waste time, it would be a good idea to recruit friends and allies. Wear your best face and gesture; you'll need support from affluent persons.
- PISCES
Feb. 19 - Mar. 20
If there is such a thing as "passing the buck" being justified . . . this week would be the ideal time. You might be the victim of an associate's blunder.

SPORTS SLANTS

- By Ray Shank

Montreal Expos' 1973 season is history now and, really, the logical thing would be to start talking hockey or football, since both those winter and fall sports are in full swing.

But I have to write one more column about the Expos, due to the fact they came so close to winning that crazy mixed-up National League east division championship. They gave it their all and, while not topping their division, played a big part in eliminating the defending champion Pittsburgh Pirates (they beat the Bucs 6-4 in their second-last game of the season).

A couple or three weeks ago I mentioned that Expos had drawn over 1.4 million fans for home games this season. I stand corrected. They actually drew 1,246,863, which is closer to 1.3 million.

Do you realize, though, that that figure (1,246,863) was higher than 10 other teams in either the National or American leagues. The Expos outdrew the two American League teams who made it to the World Series playoffs, Oakland Athletics and Baltimore Orioles.

They also outdrew Cleveland Indians, Milwaukee Brewers, California Angels, Minnesota Twins, Texas Rangers, Atlanta Braves, San Diego Padres and San Francisco Giants.

And New York Yankees, who led the American League east for a good portion of the season and once the biggest name in pro baseball, drew only 20,000 more than the only Canadian team in major league baseball.

That, in itself, shows that, while the Expos wound up with their fifth consecutive losing season (79-83) since joining the National League, provided an entertaining brand of ball for their fans.

Their 79 victories this season was six better than any other season and only two short of what their manager, Gene Mauch, had predicted a couple of months ago would be enough to win the eastern crown. Mauch, by the way, was only one out in his prediction. New York Mets took it with 82 wins and 79 losses.

The Expos had a wonderful season and deserve a tip of the hat for their fine efforts. Although they finished fourth in the standings, they were a mere 3½ games behind the Mets, one behind the third place Pirates and two behind second place St. Louis Cardinals.

Hail the Expos. Watch for them next year. Betchabuck they take it in '75 !!!
