

GISELE CHICOINE WEDS IN SCHREIBER

- Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hoggart

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hoggart exchanged marriage vows September 1st in Holy Angels Church, Schreiber with Father Meyer officiating and Miss Brenda Lalonde organist accompanied by Mr. Giovanni Cebrario, soloist.

The bride is the former Gisele Chicoine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Chicoine, Schreiber. The groom, Morris Hoggart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hoggart, Clinton, Ont.

The bride wore a long gown of white crepe enhanced by lovely lace on hem, bodice and sleeves. The flowered lace appliques on dress yoke were centered with delicate white pearls. Similar lace and pearls set the short veil. The long train attached from the shoulders was also enhanced with lace. She carried a bouquet of orange roses. The Matron of Honour, Suzanne Chicoine wore a Givenchy design long dress of orange rust polyester crepe. The dress halter style was topped with a long sleeved jacket of matching colour. Same style dressess but of three different shades of green were worn by the brides maids. They were Mrs. Warren Morrill, Gaetane Chicoine, both sisters of the bride and Shirley Evans, friend of the bride. Each of the four carried a long stem orange gladiolis.

Dennis Harris, groom's brother-in-law, was best man. Rick Finch, Don Lockwood and Kenneth Borutski all friends of the groom, were ushers.

Out of town guests were - Mrs. Blanche Dubeau, Sudbury, bride's grandmother; Mrs. W. Hoggart, groom's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hoggart, Mrs. Donna Harris, sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boughen, Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hoggart with Patricia and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. George Yeates, Mrs. Rick Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Price, Clinton, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris, Bayfield; Mr. and Mrs. A. Forbes, Toronto; Mr. Warren Morrill, Red Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne O'Driscoll with Laurie, Cathy, Karen, Cindy and Jackie, Sudbury; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chicoine and Thera, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Chicoine Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chicoine, Mr. and Mrs. Reni Chicoine, Karen and Marc, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Peterson, Thunder Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Dubeau, Pauline, Lucie, Marie Anne and Theresa Mr. and Mrs. G. Gervais, Manitouwadge.

The dinner was held in the Legion Hall, Terrace Bay, followed by a reception at the Moose Hall, after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to the east. The couple will reside in Vancouver.

U.T.U. BANQUET

W.E. (Bill) D'Arcy, president of local 571, U.T.U. was the M.C. at the banquet attended by 142 when the Union honoured 26 veterans of whom 14 were able to attend -- C.W. Boon, W.A. Colpits, H. Duplassie, W.C. Lidkea, G.L. McCuaig, L.R. McCuaig, C.W. Miller, F.L. Moorey, W.A. Moorey, M. Murphy, W.M. Oakley and B.W. Paradis.

Grace was said by conductor W.G. (Huck) Gerow. The toast to the Queen was given by Gerry Thrower and Jack Handel proposed the toast to the pensioners with Lionel Moorey responding.

After formally welcoming the veterans and their wives (who were presented with corsages) Mr. D'Arcy paid tribute to their railroading lore, saying it was due to their tutelage that he and many other men present were looking forward in time to their days of retirement. "When there was time," he said, "we learned much through discussions - when there was not time

continued page 15