TERRACE BAY POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT

During the past week members of the Police Department investigated a total of twenty occurrences.

Three break, enter and theft offences occurred during the week. These taking place at Moon's Texaco, the Moose Hall and a local residence. A juvenile has been interviewed and charges may be laid. Further investigations are being made regarding an older person who is known to have been involved.

Three thefts of property under $200.00 in value were reported and are being investigated. On October 19th, police and fire responded to a fire alarm involving a hut near the golf course. The hut was destroyed.

Five motor vehicles were spot checked and three warnings issued.

Considerable time was spent during the weekend searching for a 14 year old girl who had been reported missing from home. She returned home late on Sunday morning.

In Court last week, Judge Mitchel presided, were Joseph Desaulniers, Paul Belliveau and Roger Meister. They were remanded for two weeks on a charge of break, enter and theft.

Norbert Laderoute, of Marathon, pleaded not guilty to a charge of impaired driving, with Peter Dube acting as defence counsel. After hearing police evidence, Judge Mitchel returned a guilty verdict and imposed a fine of $320.00. Laderoute had blown 3.2 on the breathalyzer.

CURLING NEWS

On Thursday, October 18, the semi-annual meeting of the Terrace Bay Men's Curling Club was held. At this meeting, several important items of business were discussed and the following were resolved;

The dues for 1973-74 be as follows - Men Curlers $35.00; Associate members $20.00; curlers 18 years of age and still a student $15.00

The same method of team selection as last year with the following change - Any curler will be allowed to pick up and protect one or more new curlers. (New defined as not having been a member of the Terrace Bay Men's Curling Club during the last three years). At the end of the first round, these new members will be rated by the rating committee and placed in proper position.

Also, discussion was held as to the possibility of hiring a bar steward to work the hours of 6:00-9:00 each evening. It was resolved that this be left to the bar chairman.

For all those interested in curling this year, please see the ad in this week's paper and contact one of the members of the membership committee. We plan to start curling Monday, November 12 and ask that all curlers new and old contact us by Wednesday, November 7th.
