CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

The Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce met at its regular meeting November 15th with six members present.

R. Buckley reported on the annual meeting of the Superior Northern Route Regional Tourist Council held in Terrace Bay on November 3rd. Leroy Smith of MacDiarmid was elected President of the organization for 1973-74. R. Sinotte was elected first Vice-President and J. Whetter of Schreiber among its directors.

M. Neidraurer of Manitowadge reported on his recent visit to Toronto with other Regional Tourist Councils and the Department of Industry and Tourism. The whole concept of tourism will change in 1974 and what was formerly 36 Tourist Councils in Ontario will become 11 Travel Councils, of which six were allocated to Northern Ontario. Mr. Neidraurer will head up the pro tem committee to help organize the travel council in our area. As first Vice-President of the Superior Northern Route Regional Tourist Council, R. Sinotte will be a member of this pro tem committee.

As new Christmas decorations will be evident in the Township of Terrace Bay this year, it was thought that perhaps the merchants might be willing to make an extra effort to display trees or other decorations. W.E. Cavanaugh agreed to visit the various stores and make the suggestion.

J. Hale and D. Rafflant will form the nominating committee to elect new officers at the next regular meeting to be held December 20th.
