

SCHREIBER HOLDS REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

Jim Crook was the M.C. for Remembrance Day ceremony at the cenotaph, with Tommy Bolan the Parade Marshal for the veterans. Aurel Gauthier led the singing.

Father F.J. Meyer, Legion padre, the speaker gave an impressive address on the significance of the three simple words engraved on every cenotaph "Lest We Forget". We cannot forget wars - they are still being waged in many parts of the world, bringing suffering and deprivations to many people. We can remember and mourn the many lives lost to preserve our peace and happiness.

Everything in life has its price - food, clothing, shelter and most prized of all, freedom. And, it is to renew our vows of remembrance for the sacrifice made those whose names are on this cenotaph and others across our land that we meet today.

Among those placing wreaths were The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 109, it's Women's Auxiliary, Township of Schreiber, Kinsmen Club, Bank of Montreal, Lake Superior High School, Ruby Rebekah Lodge, Women's Institute, Province of Ontario for Mothers of Canada, Schreiber Hydro Commission, Holy Angels School, Hudson's Bay, Costa's Foodateria, Schreiber Foodmarket, The Catholic Women's League, M. Cebrario and Sons, L.C.B.O., Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose, Lodge #662 A.F. and A.M., Knights of Columbus #3554, Sunset Motel, Spadoni Co., St. John Ambulance and by their families in memory of G.A. Newton, Leslie Gerow and Jimmy Richardson.

C.W.L. MEETING

The Catholic Women's League, at their November 11th meeting, agreed to act with other church groups in setting prices for children at teas and suppers.

A wine and cheese party was planned for the members' Christmas party, to be held following the regular meeting in December, with a penny auction and other entertainment planned.

Mrs. G.A. Swanson volunteered to convene lunch for regular meetings.

Captains for the telephoning committee, 1973-74 will be Mesdames Jo Ann Webb, Anna Figliomeni, Armela Comeau, Ida Speziale and Teresa Trichilo.

It was decided to order more dishes for the kitchen supply bringing the count to 150 settings.

Mrs. Penny Caccamo, general convener of the Christmas bazaar, reported plans are going well, gave special thanks to Mrs. Margaret Weaver who has donated the cakes being raffled, and said the proceeds of the Almost-New table will be devoted to charity.

The resignation of Mrs. Teresa Stortini, recording secretary, was accepted with regret.

Mrs. Irene Borutski reported plans for the annual Parish Social are well under way, with the hope that last year's gala crowd will be repeated.

Mrs. Rena Ross read a selection from Women of Action - stories from the old and new Testament of women, in contrast to life now.

Mrs. Geraldine McColeman read the minutes of the last meeting.

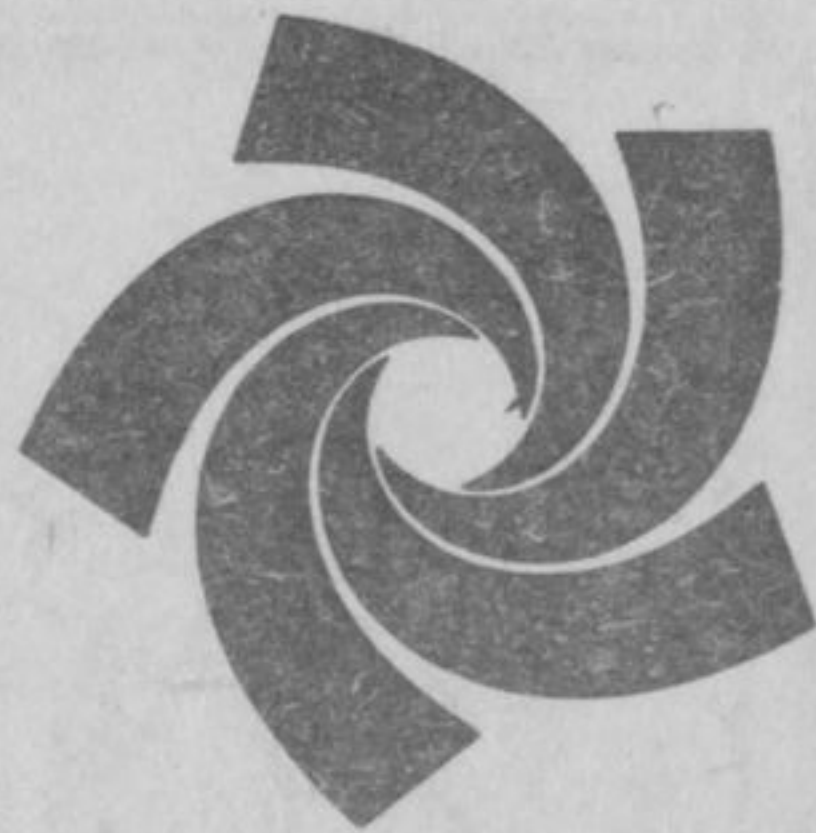

Mrs. Lucette Chicoine presided for the meeting with Father F.J. Meyer offering the opening and closing prayers.

REBEKAH LODGE TEA AND MEETING

The cake draw, at the New Officers' tea of Ruby Rebekah Lodge, was won by Janet Lengyel, and the door prize by Inez McCuaig. The servitors were Mesdames Connie Martin, Marion Simon, Alice Farrow and Mavis Slater.
