

Sports Slants - continued

Look at them, the big show-offs. Here I picked them for second spot (only to be kind) and now they want to walk away with the championship.

The Bruins have beaten the Canadiens twice already this year. My only consolation here is that I'm glad I'm still not working in Thunder Bay. I used to have a standing bet with a fellow there - $5 everytime Canadiens and Bruins met.

Oh yes, I do have one other consolation concerning those two games involving the your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: December 9 to December 15, 1973

- ARIES
Mar. 21 - Apr. 19
Things were different in the "good old days." Your sign will be touched by the "ever so beautiful past." So, look for an event that takes you into the long ago!
- TAURUS
Apr. 20 - May 20
If you don't touch the rope you won't ring the bell, it's all that simple! During this week's cosmic cycle — temptation will play a major role.
- GEMINI
May 21 - June 20
A person's greatest strength is shown by simply having to stand still. And you, Gemini, must resist the urge to make a snap decision, concerning the opposite sex.
- MOONCHILD
June 21 - July 22
You must avoid being dominated by a personality stronger than yourself. Actually, you are entering a period when you might be deceived, easily.
- LEO
July 23 - Aug. 22
Errors and miscalculations crisscross your chart. The point? Avoid taking shortcuts and the boredom that's part of repetition. Coverups now, come home to roost.
- VIRGO
Aug. 23 - Sept. 22
Being over generous is one thing; robbing Peter to save Paul is something again. Apparently, you'll be carried away in an attempt to please one person . . . at the expense of another.
- LIBRA
Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
Watch what you say at large! Apparently, in an unguarded moment, you might betray a loyal friend's confidence. So, control the urge to talk.
- SCORPIO
Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
Self-centered associates will oppose your plans. Meaning? Settle for half, if you can't get the whole. In other words, placate! Tack with the wind!
- SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
For the want of better words, you might be caught in a conflict of interests. Your chart shows: A possible clandestine meeting or activities shaded with intrigue.
- CAPRICORN
Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
Don't ponder about plans that are now underway. Keep the fire going in your boilers. It's "Damn the torpedos — full speed ahead!"
- AQUARIUS
Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
It's no big thing, but a large organization, in one form or another, will dominate this week's activities. Oh, yes! Don't lose the Holiday spirit!
- PISCES
Feb. 19 - Mar. 20
Stellar patterns tell it like it is! You are prone to instigate a personality clash among your associates. Curb the urge to provoke trouble.

Bruins and Habs. On Nov. 14, when the Bruins beat the Blue-Blanc-Rouge 4-3 in Montreal, the Canadiens managed to hold 'Super Wap' (Esposito) pointless. It was the first time this season Espo had been held scoreless, and, I might add, the last time.

Esposito is off to his best start ever, averaging better than two points a game. At that rate he'll wind up with something like 165 points and about 85 goals. Rediculous !!

Of course the other super star on that team, Bobby (Super Kid) Orr isn't exactly laying down on the job. The Parry Sound lad is right on Esposito's heels with close to two points a game. Imagine him getting seven points in one game a few weeks ago!

The big surprise, though, as far as I'm concerned in the NHL east, is the way those Detroit Red Wings have suddenly blossomed into a contender (remember, I picked the Wings for last place).

The Wings have won seven and lost only two since Alex Delvecchio hung up his blades and took over the coaching reins Nov. 7. One of those losses was an 8-0 shellacking against Boston, but among their wins were decisions of 6-4 over Montreal and 5-4 over Toronto.

And would you believe that the Wings' second continued page 7
