

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AGAIN SUCCESSFUL

The Annual Community Church Christmas Bazaar was as usual, a huge success, with throngs of shoppers awaiting door opening time, to inspect and buy home baking, knitted goods, aprons, doll clothes, stuffed animals and all sorts of Christmas novelties, including some gorgeous candles and centerpieces.

For the children, there was the cookie tree and a fish pond.

There was also a Nearly New Table.

Mrs. Lil Harris was General Convener with Mrs. A. Farrow looking after serving the dainties and tea and coffee.

A variety of small cakes were on display for milady's choice, tea and coffee served at individual tables with Christmas centerpieces.

The hall was beautifully decorated by Carol and Holly Brown.

The bake table was under the supervision of Connie Cvitkovich, Myrtle McBride and Gail Moore. Jean Roberts looked after the fish pond

Dora Trach and Joanne Moore sold cookies from the cookie tree. Helen Brooks sold doll clothes and stuffed animals. Hilda Heibert and Rose Garriock, assisted by Gertrude Cotton, were in charge of the knitted goods.

Lil Harris and Pam Jones old aprons. The Novelty Table was looked after by Barb Wise and Elaine Mannisto.
