MR. AND MRS. LOHR GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY

Members of the Terrace Bay Community Church had an opportunity to bid farewell at an After Church Christmas Coffee Hour in the Narthex of the Church, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lohr, who leave shortly to make their home in Elmira, Ont.

During the morning service, a special men's choir presented a musical number, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret McKague, with Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss at the organ.

Mr. Lohr, a long-standing member of the choir, sang a solo, the well-beloved "Holy City".

Rev. Peter McKague paid tribute to Emily and Bert Lohr, who have been active in the Church for more than twenty-five years. Mr. Lohr, has been on the Official Board of Stewards, the Committee of Elders, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and with his great knowledge of music, has often contributed his talents towards the music during services. Mrs. Lohr often played the organ when the regular organist was absent.

Mr. McKague assured the Lohr's that they would be greatly missed in the life and work of the Community Church, and yet he said, they would bring their gifts to enrich their new home Church in Elmira. Mrs. G. Soughton, Mrs.

J. Brooks and Mrs. E. Kennedy served Christmas cake and coffee.

The best of wishes go with the Lohr's as they leave Terrace Bay for their new home.
