

CHRISTMAS CAROL SINGING AT BIRCHWOOD TERRACE

Saturday evening, December 15th was a special time for the Senior Citizens in Birchwood Terrace, the home for the aged in Terrace Bay.

Before a crackling log fire in the beautifully decorated lounge, a group of local musicians under the leadership of Peter Vanderkam and David Barnett played a medley of songs and Christmas carols, in a gay sing-a-long for seventy people from both Schreiber and Terrace Bay.

Many a tear glistened on smiling faces as the Community Church junior choir with Mrs. Margaret McKague sang their soft sweet Christmas songs around the twinkling Christmas tree, so enchanted were the old folks that the "Hosanna" choir stayed on to sing one or two more songs after their first appearance.

Lunch and coffee, with koolaid for the children was donated by the Ladies of the Community, and was served from a lovely decorated table set in the Christmas theme, with a Pointsetta centre piece, members of the junior choir served the guests and visitors.

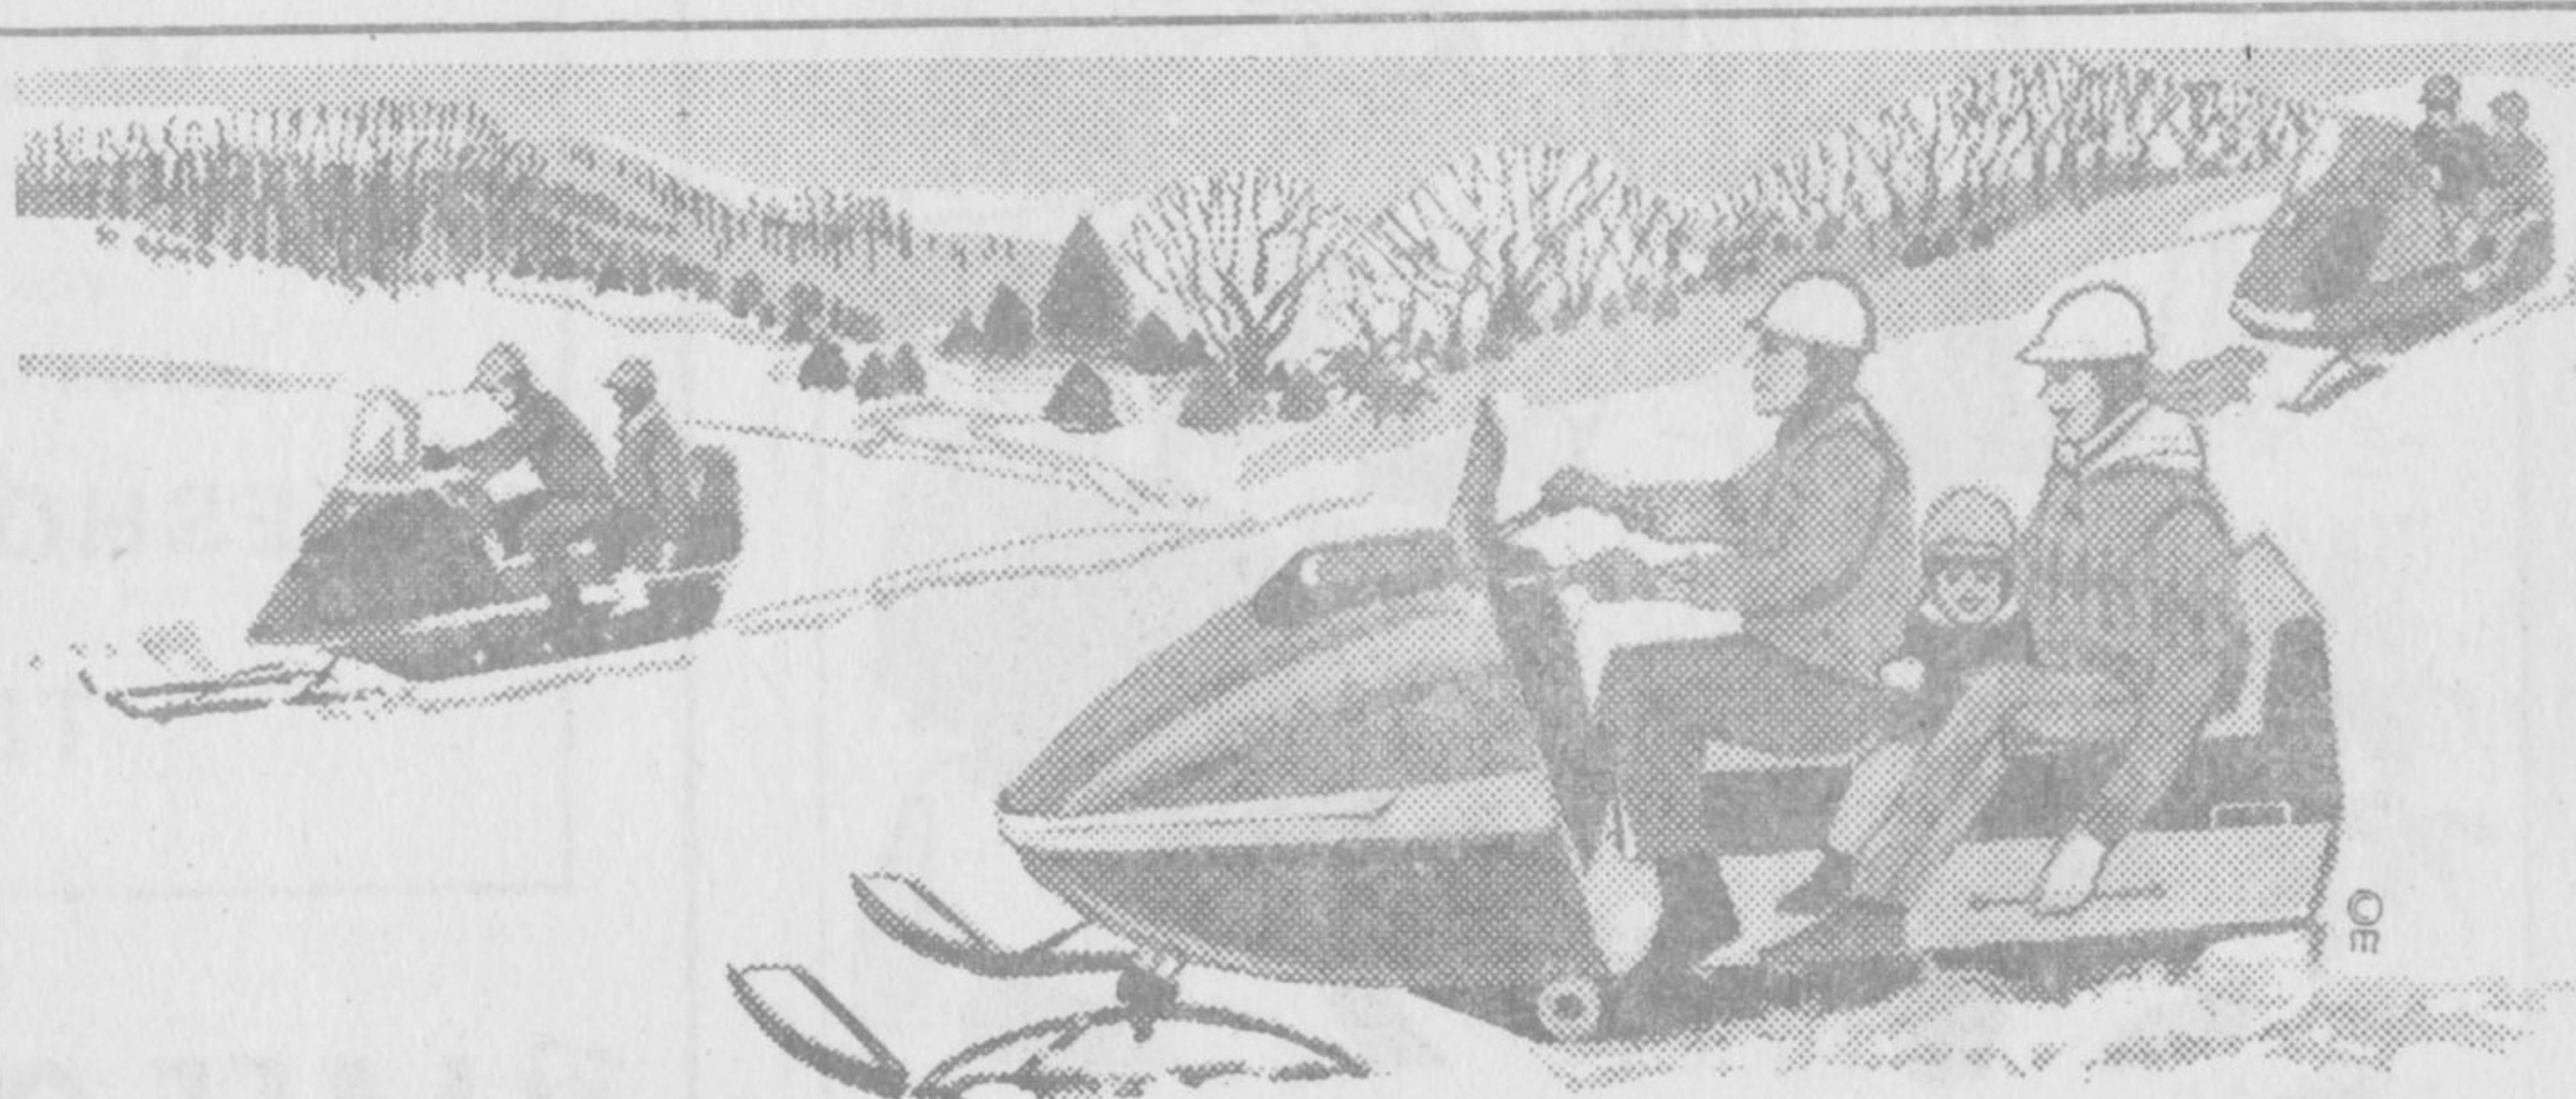

It was very much appreciated by the group, to have the Staff of Birchwood Terrace and so many citizens volunteer baking and their time for this endeavour, especially the musicians who so wholeheartedly practiced for this first Christmas Sing-a-long for our Senior Citizens, without all their encouragement and enthusiasm a Christmas night of song could not have been complete.

The Christmas spirit certainly prevailed among the old and the young alike during the evening.

Perhaps another musical night will be planned for the future.
