the World Series over New York Mets. Finley made an about-face a few weeks later and since then American League president Joe Cronin has upheld Finley's decision to make Williams honor the two-year contract he still has with the world champs.)

Yes, it was a very good year!

SPORTS SHORTS: When Montreal Canadiens got bombed 9-2 by Toronto Maple Leafs in Toronto the day after Christmas, it marked the first time since Jan. 30, 1949 that that many goals had been scored against them in one game. Except, that is, for that time three or four years ago when the Habs pulled their goalie with about 10 minutes left to play in the last game of the schedule against Chicago, hoping to score enough goals to make the playoffs. If I remember correctly, the Hawks won that game about 10-3 and the Habs didn't make it

Saturday, Dec. 29 was a real sports nut's field day, at least in the Windsor area. There were four football games, including the two Super Bowl semi-finals, an NHL hockey game at night, plus a tennis contest on Wide World of Sports ...
