

U.C.W. - continued

A new minute book and briefcase is to be purchased for the secretary.

The Least Coin collection was taken up.

Mesdames Bern Whent, Margaret Spillane, L. Christie and W. Clemens were named lunch hostesses for the next meeting.

Following the meeting there was a round of games, arranged by Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Clemens and Mrs. Macadam, an exchange of gifts and a social hour.

REBEKAH'S PLAN CHILDREN'S PARTY

The Schreiber Rebekah Lodge at their December 12th meeting planned a children's Christmas party, to be held in the United Church hall, with every member to bring a child to meet Santa Claus.

Names were drawn for the Unknown Friend program for the coming year, whereby members receive cards for birthdays and other occasions, the sender concealing her identity by various means.

Mrs. Hamilton reported on the December 7th penny auction, and also presented a lengthy sick and visiting account - many members ill at home or in hospital.

Mrs. Bernice Whent presented the treasurer's report. Minutes were adopted as read by Mrs. Beth Macadam.

Mrs. Lil Harris, N.G. and Mrs. Gladys Hamilton, V.G., were in charge of the meeting which was followed by the Christmas party and an exchange of gifts, presented by Santa. Mrs. Winnie Clemens, convener of the party, had arranged some amusing games, and a lunch served from gaily-decorated table.

Degree practice will follow the next meeting on January 9.

MRS. MACADAM HONOURED ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Macadam held a tea in honour of the former's mother, Mrs. Jessie Macadam, to mark her 80th birthday. Mrs. Macadam had grown up in Schreiber and lived in Schreiber until she entered Pinewood Court - later to Birchwood Terrace, and many old friends called to offer congratulations, and reminisce over other days and events.

Mrs. Mary Chadwell, an old friend, poured tea and Mrs. Margaret Handel and Mrs. Margaret Spillane, neices, with Mrs. Eva Gordon assisted the hostess in serving.

The Christmas scenes and symbols in all of the Spadoni Firms' windows are the admiration of everyone in town, most believing them to be enormous stencils. But they were done free-hand, and backward, by two neices, Tana and Cora Morrow, teenage daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow.

Nola Fummerton was home from Western University with her family for Christmas.

Christmas visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roffey and family included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roffey and baby daughter Amy Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bellhouse, all of Brantford.
