SPORTS SLANTS

- By Ray Shank

The spanking new World Football League, the brain-child of the man who gave birth to the World Hockey Association - Gary Davidson - will provide us sports fans with even more to cheer about once it gets going, this fall ... on TV, that is.

Plans of the embryo WFL are to kick off the season on national (U.S.) TV with one game, probably on Wednesdays to wet the appetite, and then come on with the balance of the schedule on Thursdays.

A few U.S. sportswriters feel Davidson's league won't get off the ground, but most are at least waiting till the league gets started.

Those same writers used to laugh when the AFL (American Football League) was inaugurated and there were scores like Oakland 52, San Diego 28, or New York Titans 46, Denver Broncos 45.

But they became believers on June 8, 1966. That's when the AFL and the NFL (National Football League) merged.

Then on January 12, 1969, the sports world was shocked. That's the day Joe Namath
