NOTICE

After all those months Roxy Theatre sale has recently been completed.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my staff for being so faithful and thank my friends and patrons for supporting the theatre since I965, which was much appreciated.

I also wish the new owners success, now called Strand Theatre.

*Sincerely,
Verna Linkewich.*

L.A. TO ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION 223

The January meeting opened with twenty-seven ladies present. Following roll call and old business one new member, Pat Downey was initiated into the auxiliary.

A motion was passed to accept the application of two new members.

The financial statement was read and the various committees gave their reports.

Correspondence included several Christmas cards and thank you notes.

It was decided to eliminate Friday night lunches due to lack of response.

All members were in favour of purchasing a much needed fridge for the drug room at the McCausland Hospital. A motion was passed to buy this article and Mrs. E. Boyd will look after this matter.

A motion was passed to rent a mail box for the ladies auxiliary.

The Legion mixed bonspiel will be held on Saturday, February I6th and will be reigned over by a king and queen. This event will be followed by a smorgasbord and social at the Legion hall and is open to members only. If you are not curling and wish to join in the fun bring along your favorite casserole. The king and queen will be chosen on Friday night and must be at the legion in order to qualify.

Marg Duriez will convene the curling smorgasbord with Edna Beddard and Dot Ballentine as co-conveners.

Coming events and conveners:

February 6th: a luncheon for the Engineering Department. Convener Jessie Dodge.

February 8th: Retirement luncheon. Convener Audrey Smith

February I1th: Retirement luncheon. Convener Marg Duriez.

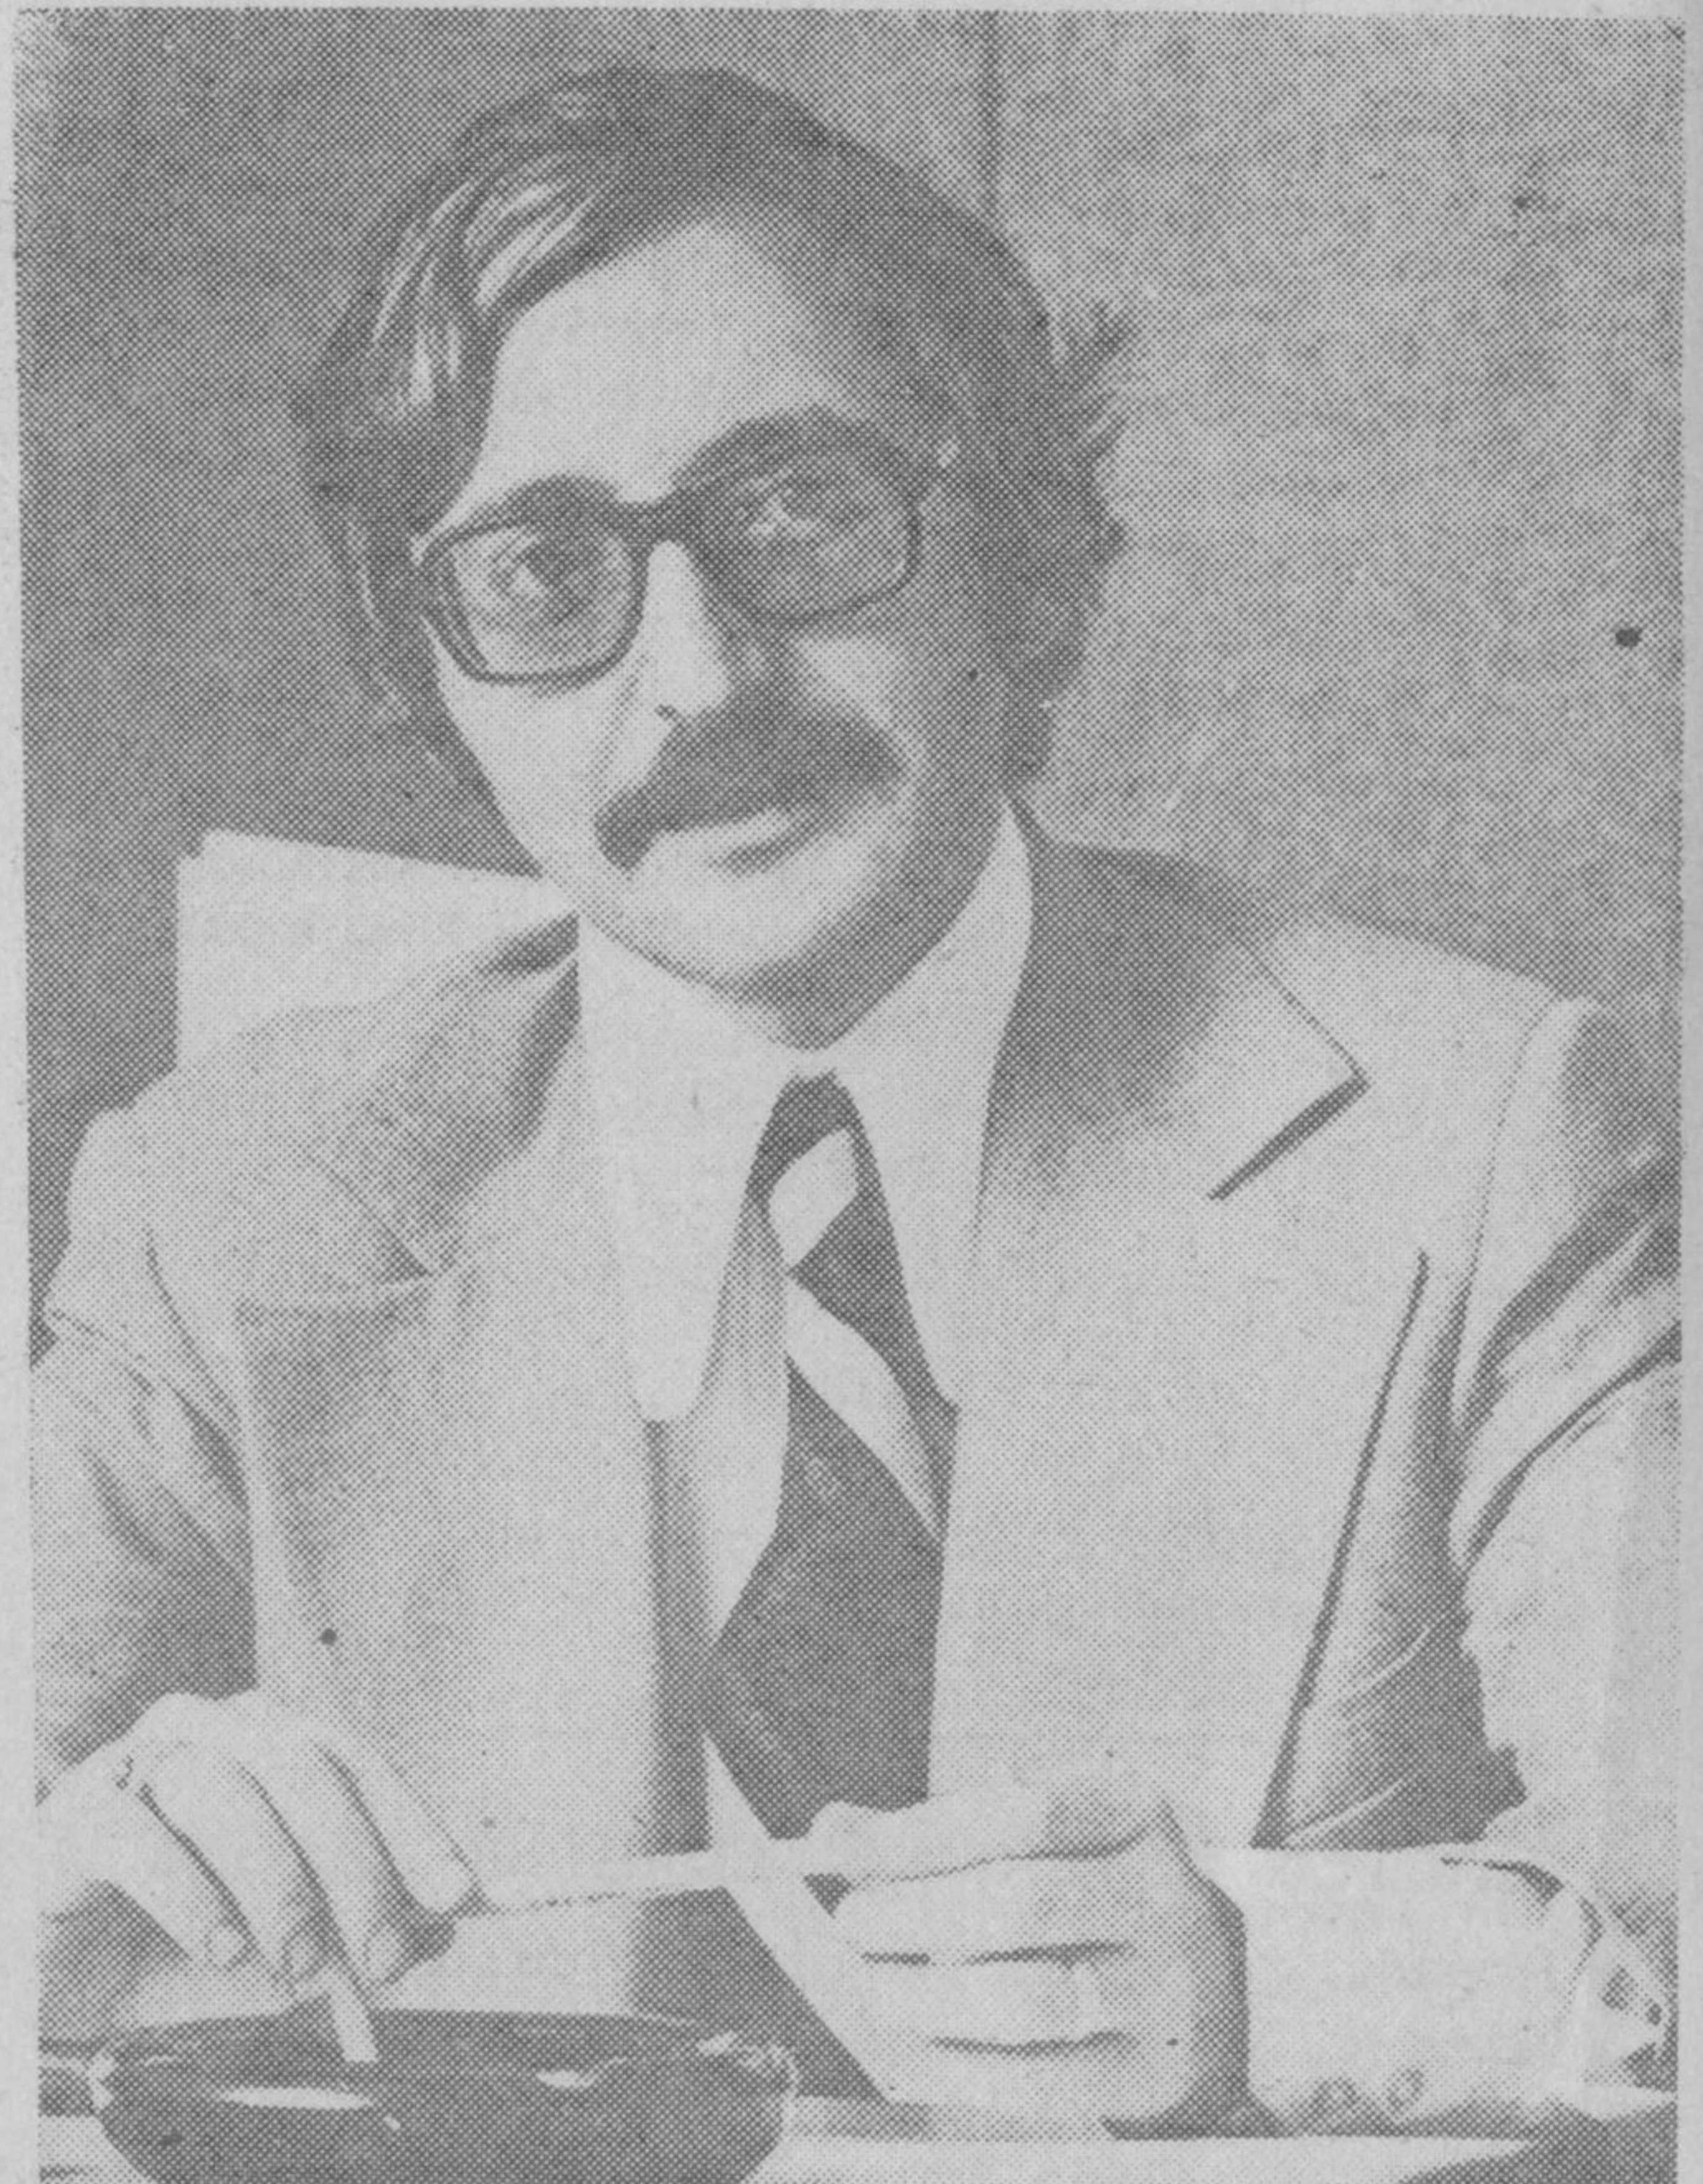

March 2nd: Electrical Department Smorgasbord Convener Freda Boucher.

Pam Jones will once again purchase the wool for knitted articles for the bazaar.

On February 2Ist. the ladies auxiliary will serve the Brownie and Guide banquet. It was suggested that the mothers of the guides and brownies bring along a casserole to this event and the ladies auxiliary would provide the desert and beverage. All ladies present were in favour.

Following the meeting a lovely lunch was served by Aggie Szpak, Rosemary Thorpe and Alice Yates.

Ladies - your membership fees are due now!
