

"OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH" - APPLY NOW

Application forms are now available at the Recreation Office and Terrace Bay Campus office for those students who are interested in submitting a project for the summer of 1974.

Deadline date is March 15th, so if you have an idea for a project, start working on it now.

The following six (6) criteria have been established for the selection of projects: Community benefit, Youth Involvement, Benefits to participants, Innocation, Feasibility and Project costs.

Mr. Bill Hyder is the project officer for our area and his address and telephone number are available at the Recreation and High School offices.

Start thinking about a project and pick up your forms NOW!

MINOR HOCKEY WEEK IN PROGRESS

The Minor Hockey Association has put together quite a few games this week to celebrate Minor Hockey Week in Terrace Bay. Refer to the Arena schedule for details of games scheduled for the remainder of Minor Hockey Week. Remember that your Minor Hockey tag will allow you free admittance to all Minor Hockey games that will be held. Support Minor Hockey Week and attend some games.

TERRACE BAY "RAIDERS" IN ACTION FRIDAY

This Friday, February 22nd, the Manitouwadge MERCHANTS will provide the opposition for the Terrace Bay RAIDERS in NorWest Intermediate League play. These two clubs have provided some very good hockey for the fans this season and this Friday should be no exception. Game time is 8:00 P.M.

TERRACE BAY MINOR TEAMS PLAY LAST HOME GAMES OF SCHEDULE

This Sunday afternoon, the Terrace Bay Major Peewees and Bantams will play their last home league games of the season. Schreiber will be the opposition.

The Midgets will play on Sunday against Manitouwadge and on Monday night against Schreiber. Plan to attend these games.

SWIM INSTRUCTOR COURSES

A reminder that this is your last chance to register for the Red Cross Instructor Course and Recertification Course. February 27th is the deadline date for the Instructor Course and February 22nd for the Recertification Course.
