THE CANADIAN KINSMEN & HIS COMMUNITY

A Kinsmen Club has been chartered in Terrace Bay. This is an organization of young men between the ages of 21 and 40, bound together for the purpose of service and fellowship. Their motto "Serve the Community's Greatest Needs". This is strictly an all Canadian Service Club. All moneys raised in a community remain with the community.

The new chartered club of Terrace Bay is 23 strong from all walks of life. These young men will serve their community in many ways, from volunteering their time as well as financial assistance where needed.

Your first opportunity to see the Kinsmen in action will be the 1974 Winter Carnival, they have obligated themselves to sponsor the following programs: the ice and snow sculptures, the woodsmanship contests and looking after the snack bar at the Masonic Hall.

Support your community, support Kinsmen

90 In The Arctic?

In the summer, nine-tenths of the Arctic's lands lose their covering of ice and snow; temperatures may rise as high as 90°F.
