

Sports Slants - continued

Let's hope Wayne Thomas, Michel Plasse and/or Bunny Larocque are money-hungry once those playoffs roll around. The load is on their back if the Canadiens are to repeat as Stanley Cup champs.

SPORTS SHORTS: Here's a hockey question that you can try and figure out between now and next week. What two NHL hockey players have played with five different clubs and have scored 20 or more goals with each of those teams? Answer will lead off next week's column

University of Guelph Gryphons proved last weekend that you don't have to be the best in your league to win a national championship. The Gryphons finished fourth in the standings of the Ontario Universities Athletic Association basketball league and were knocked out in the first playoff round. But they were asked to compete as a wild card team in the Canadian championships. The Gryphons won three consecutive games, including a 74-72 thriller over defending Canadian champion St. Mary's University Huskies of Halifax, to take all the marbles

Boston Bruins have lost only 11 games (as of last Tuesday), but only one club has managed to beat them twice this season. After dropping 3-2 and 4-3 decisions to the Bruins, Toronto Maple Leafs have bounced back to take the Bruins 6-2 and 6-4 in their last two meetings. Only one club in the NHL has a winning record against the Bruins. Chicago Black Hawks have tied the Bruins three times and beaten them once, 2-1

And how about that ageless ol' guy Gordie Howe. For a fellow who's supposed to be over the hill, he's certainly doing a lot of showing off in the World Hockey Association. His Houston Aeros lead the west division of the WHA and, for a couple of weeks, he has led the league in points. After last weekend Gordie had 91 (29 goals, 61 assists) points. That's already 21 more than the goal of 70 he set for himself

And look at Bobby Hull. He hasn't lost much of his scoring touch. At last count he had 45 markers, tops in the WHA, and appeared a cinch to finish with a record-breaking seventh 50-goal season. He scored 50 or more five times while with Chicago Black Hawks and had 50 his initial year as playing-coach of the WHA Winnipeg Jets last season
