And Rooney says the team will play out of Houston. Surely they can't do any worse than the NFL Oilers ....

As of Sunday, March 10, Detroit Red Wings had won 20, tied nine and lost 21 since Alex Delvecchio took over the coaching reins last November. Not exactly an award-winning record. Let's face it, though, the Red Wings really haven't got much to work with. Take Mickey Redmond and Marcel Dionne out of their lineup and they'd be worse than Vancouver Canucks, or California Golden Seals. I thought Alex would perk up what he had after Ned Harkness left as general manager, but even that didn't work. The Wings have won four, tied three and lost eight since Harkness' departure. One thing I can promise you, though, if Ted Lindsay takes over as general manager of the Wings next year - and chances are pretty good he will -- watch for a new look in the Red Wings.

I'd bet my gum rubber boots Lindsay will build a rough 'n tough club similar to what Fred Shero built in Philadelphia, then the Wings will be tough to contend with ....

LEGION SWEETHEART SPIEL SUCCESSFUL

The Annual Sweetheart Bonspiel of the Schreiber Legion was again most successful, with a voiceferous crowd supporting the curlers.

Barry Harper was the spiel chairman, his committee being Rene Bedard, Len Hiller, Bill Collinson, Jim Crook, Georgina Davis, Earline Johnson, Ruth Hiller and Jean Crook.

Following the curling a buffet dinner was enjoyed in the Legion, arranged by Mesdames Bobbie Winters, Venita McKenna, Mima Duggan and Chris Fadden.

The first event was won by Larry Fraser's rink, second-Ruth Hiller, third-Jack Handel and 4th John Halonen rink.

Second event was won by Bina Welbourne rink; 2nd-Edgar LeBlanc; 3rd-Dominic Carmesin rink; 4th-Doug Moore rink.

The third event was won by Maureen Phillips rink; 2nd by Barry Harper rink; 3rd Earline Johnson rink and 4th Burton Phillips rink.

The biggest end went to John Halonen, and the first knocked-out prize to Jack Handel.

A happy family party was enjoyed this weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glad, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pearson Mrs. Lorraine Lawlis & George Hayduk of Thunder Bay and Les McNally of Emo.
