

KINSMEN-KINETTES ANNUAL MEETING

The Schreiber Kinsmen and Kinettes enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner in the Anglican Church hall, going on from there to the town hall for their annual joint meeting.

During the meeting, Brian Birch, president of the Kinsmen, presented George Riley with his Life Membership in the Association, the highest honour they could bestow in appreciation of his 22 years work with the Club.

Kinette president, Edythe Cosgrove presented Mrs. Eva Gordon with a plaque honouring her for 26 years membership in the Kinettes including 21 years of perfect attendance, giving a resume of the club activities Eva has taken part in.

Neil Foot was welcomed into the Kinsmen, and new member tabs were presented to Wayne Stewart and Bob Turner for bringing in new Kinsmen into the club.

In his address Brian Birch announced the Schreiber club will be officially chartering the new Terrace Bay Kinsmen Club in Terrace Bay on April 5th. Special guests at the occasion will be George Irving, the National President and Don Hutton, the District Governor, with Kinsmen from all over the zone also in attendance.

The Kinsmen Club of Schreiber is now known as the Kinsmen Club of Schreiber Incorporated, this new status recognized on January 8, 1974 and their letters of Patent recently received from the Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations, John V. Clement.

Mr. Birch announced the winner of the Kinsmen's last ticket-selling venture, an air fare trip for two, and $100.00 spending money, to see Boston play the Leafs, in Toronto, was won by Larry Davis.

The draw, with Wayne Stewart as chairman, was sold out and the Club most grateful for the public's support.

The evening ended with a social and dance, music provided by the Commisso band.
