

DAY-DAWN TO DUSK SKATING SHOW THEME

Every Skater in the Show was a STAR - to fond parents and friends - from the tiniest toddler to proficient, graceful older girls and the crowd loved the entire performance, at the annual display of the Schreiber Figure Skating Club.

The costumes were particularly lovely this year, and the only boys in the show, Kenton Klassen and Ricky Costa, as stout little penguins, in the Birds' number evoked instant attention.

The grocery hamper draw was won by Liz Hartman, and the five dollar consolation prize by Wayne Tremblay.

Tracy Wilde and Ricky Costa made the gift presentations to Carol Chichka the club professional.

Some sixty skaters were in the show, obviously enjoying their parts, and solos were skated by Rae Sisson, Linda Huard, Susan Johnson, and Sharon Bougie, a duo by Holly and Cindy McKay.

The theme of the show was Day-Dawn to Dusk and the performance ended with a solo by Carol Chichka, the club professional.
