

COOK: The funeral of the late William James Cook, whose death occurred in Sault Ste. Marie on March 19 was conducted in St. Andrew's United Church in Schreiber on March 22 by Rev. Peter McKague.

Mrs. Justin Martin was the organist.

The honorary pall bearers were Joe Campbell, George Birch, Tommy Bolan and Arthur Moorey. Active bearers were Arnold Almos, Don Almos, Rolly Stortini, Roy White, George A. Scott and Frank McKenna.

Interment was in Schreiber cemetery.

Mr. Cook was predeceased by his wife Jessie in April 1967. His immediate survivors are two sons, Bill and Ray of Schreiber, six grandchildren, and one sister Mrs. E. MacDonald of Burlington.

In 1931 he came to Jackfish as an operator for the C.P.R. when their coal dock operation made it a thriving community. He left there in 1950 for Bigwood, where he was the station agent, was transferred from there to Desbarats, and from there to Marathon, where he remained until his retirement in 1964.

Then he moved to Bruce Mines where he took an active part in the community, being elected several times to the town council, and at the time of his death, curator of the Bruce Mines Museum which he worked to organize. Attending the funeral from out of town were granddaughters: Marilyn Cook, Hamilton; Deborah Cook, Sault Ste. Marie; Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan, Bruce Mines; and the following old Jackfish friends - Mr. and Mrs. John Stortini, Sault Ste. Marie; Mr. and Mrs. M. Shapiro, Mr. and Mrs. W. Andony, and Mrs. Ann McLeod, Thunder Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Almos, Mr. and Mrs. Don Almos, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stortini, Mrs. Isobel Delaronde, Terrace Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Roy White, Marathon, Ont.

BOONE: Mr. Alfred Edward Boone age 56 years of Ignace, Ontario, died Sunday, March 10th after a short illness. He was born and educated in Schreiber, Ontario.

A veteran of World War II, he served overseas with the RCAF and had the honour of earning the D.F.C. Medal. He was loaned to the R.A.F., serving in Russia for six months and was a member of the squadron which sank the Tirpitz, also a surviving member of the famed squadron known as the "Dam Busters".

He moved to Ignace in 1941 and was in business there for 33 years, starting as a clerk and becoming manager and owner of Fair Way Stores at Ignace. An adherent of the United Church, he was a Shiner and a member of the Khartum Temple, Winnipeg. He is survived by his wife Kathleen (nee McLeod) of Ignace; one son Robert, Thunder Bay; three brothers, Charles of Schreiber, and Frank and Malcolm of Thunder Bay; two sisters, Mrs. Della Moore and Mrs. Margaret McKenna both of Schreiber.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m., March 13th in Emmanuel Anglican Church Ignace, with Rev. Robert Rolls officiating.
