Mauch, meanwhile, is a former Dodger who has managed the past 15 seasons and makes his winter residence in Los Angeles. The Expos have gotten better every year under his tutorship and this year, like last, are in the running for the National League's east division pennant. Wonder if Mauch would still leave the Expos if the Montrealers won the World Series this year. Anyway, remember, you read it here first

The Women's Institute of Schreiber made a visitation to Birchwood Terrace on Saturday evening, taking small gifts, books and candy to the residents there.

Tea was served to the guests and residents by the staff. The Women's Institute are planning to send birthday cards to the residents on their special days.
