REEVE MCPARLAND ADDRESSES C.W.L.

At the June meeting of the Schreiber Catholic Women's League, Mrs. Lorette McParland gave a report on the recent Diocesan Convention, saying Mrs. Norah McGuire, local past president was elected first vice president of the diocesan council.

Mrs. Lucette Chicoine, who presided for the meeting, urged the members to persistently remind children to be careful in riding their bikes.

The correspondence, read by Mrs. Gloria Mullins, included information from Pam Adey, local Recreation Director, concerning adult swimming lessons.

Minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report were adopted as read by Mrs. Mullins and Mrs. S. Connelly.

A plea was made for leaders for the Girl Guides.

The rental of the Parish Hall for social occasions was discussed but the matter tabled until meetings resume in the Fall when C.W.L. catering will also be studied.

Father F.J. Meyer offered the opening and closing prayers.

Following the meeting Reeve H.J. McParland gave a most informative talk of town affairs, with financial statements when possible.

Mrs. Chicoine thanked Mr. McParland and presented him with a gift.

A social hour followed the meeting.

CHIMO CLUB OPENING

Among the honoured guests attending the formal opening of Chimo Senior Citizens Club in Schreiber were Keith Penner, M.P. and Mrs. Penner, Norman A. Cafik, M.P. Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Jack Stokes MLA and Mrs. Stokes, D.G. Walton, local manager of the Bank of Montreal and Mrs. Walton, Pierre Michel Dube of Thunder Bay, Schreiber's reeve and council and clerk-treasurer, A.J. Gauthier.

Tommy Whent, the president, was master of ceremonies, describing the planning and difficulties in obtaining labour to accomplish renovations necessary in the building.

Mr. Penner, who introduced Mr. Cafik, spoke of their mutual ambitions in securing such centres, saying he was particularly proud of those in northwestern Ontario, his bailiwick.

Mr. Cafik, also admiring the club decore, said that following up New Horizon Grants which made such quarters possible, he had been deeply impressed by the way in which the funds had been spent.

Mr. Stokes said he brought the official greetings of Premier William Davis and The Hon. Rene Brunelle and their congratulations. He paid tribute to the senior citizens who had helped him 'grow up' and the older he grew the more respect and admiration he felt for them. He remarked on the beneficence of the Bank of Montreal in acknowledging the patronage of their long-time old customers. The handsome new club he said was proof that what cannot be accomplished by one or two can be achieved handsomely in a collective effort.

Mr. Walton expressed the Bank of Montreal's pleasure in seeing such enjoyment in their gift of their former premises, a debt of gratitude to the faithful customers who had made their business in Schreiber such an obvious success.

Lester McCuaig, past president said it was his hope that with a centre now available for such purposes the townspeople would further their opportunity to learn about the many ethnic cultures from friends within the community cuisines, folklore from which spring so many of their traditions and celebrations, in a
