Summer Camp - continued

The three weeks of operation are August 5-9, 12-16, 19-23 and it is hoped that the camp will function all summer in future years. The cost to a camper will be $35.00, which will pay for his lodging and food. All equipment and supervisor and instructional costs are taken care of by the Recreation Departments of the four communities and Government grants.

The campers will bring with them personal belongings, a sleeping bag, any fishing equipment and cameras that they wish to use. Transportation to and from the camp will be the res-
