CARD OF THANKS - I would like to thank everyone who was so kind enough to send cards of congratulations on my retirement.

John Spillane.

CARD OF THANKS - We would like to thank all our friends, some old, some new, for your kindness over the past weeks. We have spent many happy years in Schreiber and Terrace Bay and both communities will always have a special meaning for us in many, many ways.

Deepest thanks to Bill and Prisca, Walt and Betty Ann, Anne, Maureen, Kay, the Kinsmen and Kinettes, and T.Q. behind the bar.

Our home and our hearts will always be open to each of you if ever you should journey west.

With appreciation and affection,
Joyce and Bruce Gordon.

CARD OF THANKS - I would like to say a sincere thank you to my neighbours and friends for all their kindness, with flowers, gifts and cards, and the wonderful baking my family enjoyed while I was in the hospital.

Margaret Santerre.

to tell the students this summer.

Cathy and Paulette are graduates of the programme from the last few years. They have lots of experience in the bush and will be junior instructors in the programme.

With a good staff, the programme is bound to be good. If you registered for the programme, come and meet your instructors, Tuesday July 2nd, at 9 o'clock at the Public School.

LACROSSE:

There is still no definite word from the Sports and Recreation Bureau about the Lacrosse clinic. They are having difficulty finding instructors. All those who registered will be contacted as soon as we know when the clinic will be held.

SUMMER '74 PLAYGROUND-SPORTS PROGRAMME:

Kirk, Donna, Shane and Patricia are away this week taking leadership courses in Dorion and Marathon. Their programme begins July 2 at 9:30 at the Public School. All kids between 5 and 15 are welcome to come and join
