A sympathy and understanding, beyond their ages, was revealed in the posters submitted by pupils in grade 7 at Holy Angels Separate School and Lake Superior Public Schools, in a contest sponsored by the Schreiber-Terrace Bay Association for the Mentally Retarded.

There were only three token awards for the contest, but the judges, Mrs. Alice Sparkes, Mrs. Rita McGrath of Schreiber and Mrs. G. Dashkewytch and Mrs. W. McKie of Terrace Bay, found their final selection difficult indeed finally agreeing on - first, Virginia Stortini, Holy Angels School; second, Dean Broughton and third, Nicky Pelto, both of Lake Superior Public School, Terrace Bay Campus.

The posters will be displayed at the Association booth in September at the Fall Fair in Schreiber, as a reminder to those who have forgotten to make their usual annual donation to the work through the "Flowers of Hope" campaign

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Doig have their grandsons Marc and Stephen of Burnaby, B.C. visiting them

Mrs. Louise Irving of Vancouver visited her mother Mrs. Eileen Christianson and has returned home, leaving her daughters, Kara and Lori, to spend the rest of the holidays.
