50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell

Joe and Winnie (Taylor) Campbell, whose 50th wedding anniversary occurred on March 3rd, renewed their marriage vows on July 5th, at a special service in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber, with Father George Topp officiating. The ceremony deferred until all their family could be home to attend.

The bridesmaid, the bride's sister, Gladys Taylor - now Mrs. Henry Nolan of London, and many other relatives and friends attended the happy occasion.

Mrs. Campbell chose a long gown in golden tones, with full long sleeves, and a corsage of golden roses.

Following the church service a dinner was held in the Curling Rink when Father Topp offered the Grace and George Birch was Master of Ceremonies.

Keith Penner, M.P. proposed the toast to the Queen, Jack Stokes, MLA, the toast to Winnie and Joe, and Reeve H.J. McParland presented the good wishes of the community.

Messages of congratulation were read from the Governor General, Prime Minister Trudeau, and placques received from both the Federal and Provincial Governments, with a personal letter from the Hon. William Davis.

Mr. Birch after speaking of his own happy relationship on The Road, when both were working, said he could understand Joe's gratification in seeing four generations as telegraphers - his father, John Campbell; Joe, his son Russell (now Chief Despatcher in Toronto Terminal) and; his grandson, Michael Souliere, who has just started.
