HIGH SCHOOL REUNION

The weather was great the weekend of August 2nd and so was the high school reunion that was celebrated by those who returned to Terrace Bay from the width and breadth of Canada.

Its not often that 50 or more people can re-visit the olden days, as the memories brought back the times that meant alot.

For the weekend it was as if time stood still.

We began with what started out to be a quiet evening at the curling lounge and ended up having a spontaneous party 'til the wee hours of the morning.

The reunion continued Saturday morning with
