

GAULIN:

Funeral services for Francis Henry Gaulin were held in the Community Church, Terrace Bay on Saturday afternoon, August 24th, at 2 p.m., conducted by members of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, and the Masonic Lodge, No. 662.

Francis Gaulin, who passed away suddenly on August 21st, was born in East Angus, Quebec on July 10, 1920. He completed his education there, and served his country in the Canadian Army, being posted to England during the war years. Upon returning to civilian life, he was employed as time keeper by the Brompton Pulp and Paper Company of East Angus.

On September 24th, 1945, he was married to Sadie Miles, also of East Angus. Shortly after, he was transferred to the Red Rock Ontario branch of the Brompton Pulp and Paper Company. During his stay in Red Rock, he was active in Union activities, being one of the organizers.

In the fall of 1948 he came to Terrace Bay, Ontario, securing employment with Kimberly-Clark of Canada. He was digester cook with the company, until the time of death. He had been honoured on the event of the 25th anniversary of employment with Kimberly-Clark.

Mr. Gaulin was Charter member of the Masonic Lodge, No. 662, Terrace Bay and also an active member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, Terrace Bay. He helped to build the original Legion hall in the South Camp, and also assisted in the construction of the Masonic hall. In the last few years, due to ill health, he had not been as active a member.

Mr. Gaulin is survived by his son, Henry of Weston, Ontario, former wife Sadie, East Angus, Quebec, sisters Fern and Olive, St. Catherines, brothers, Raymond of Red Rock and Ottie, in the United States and Gerald of East Angus.

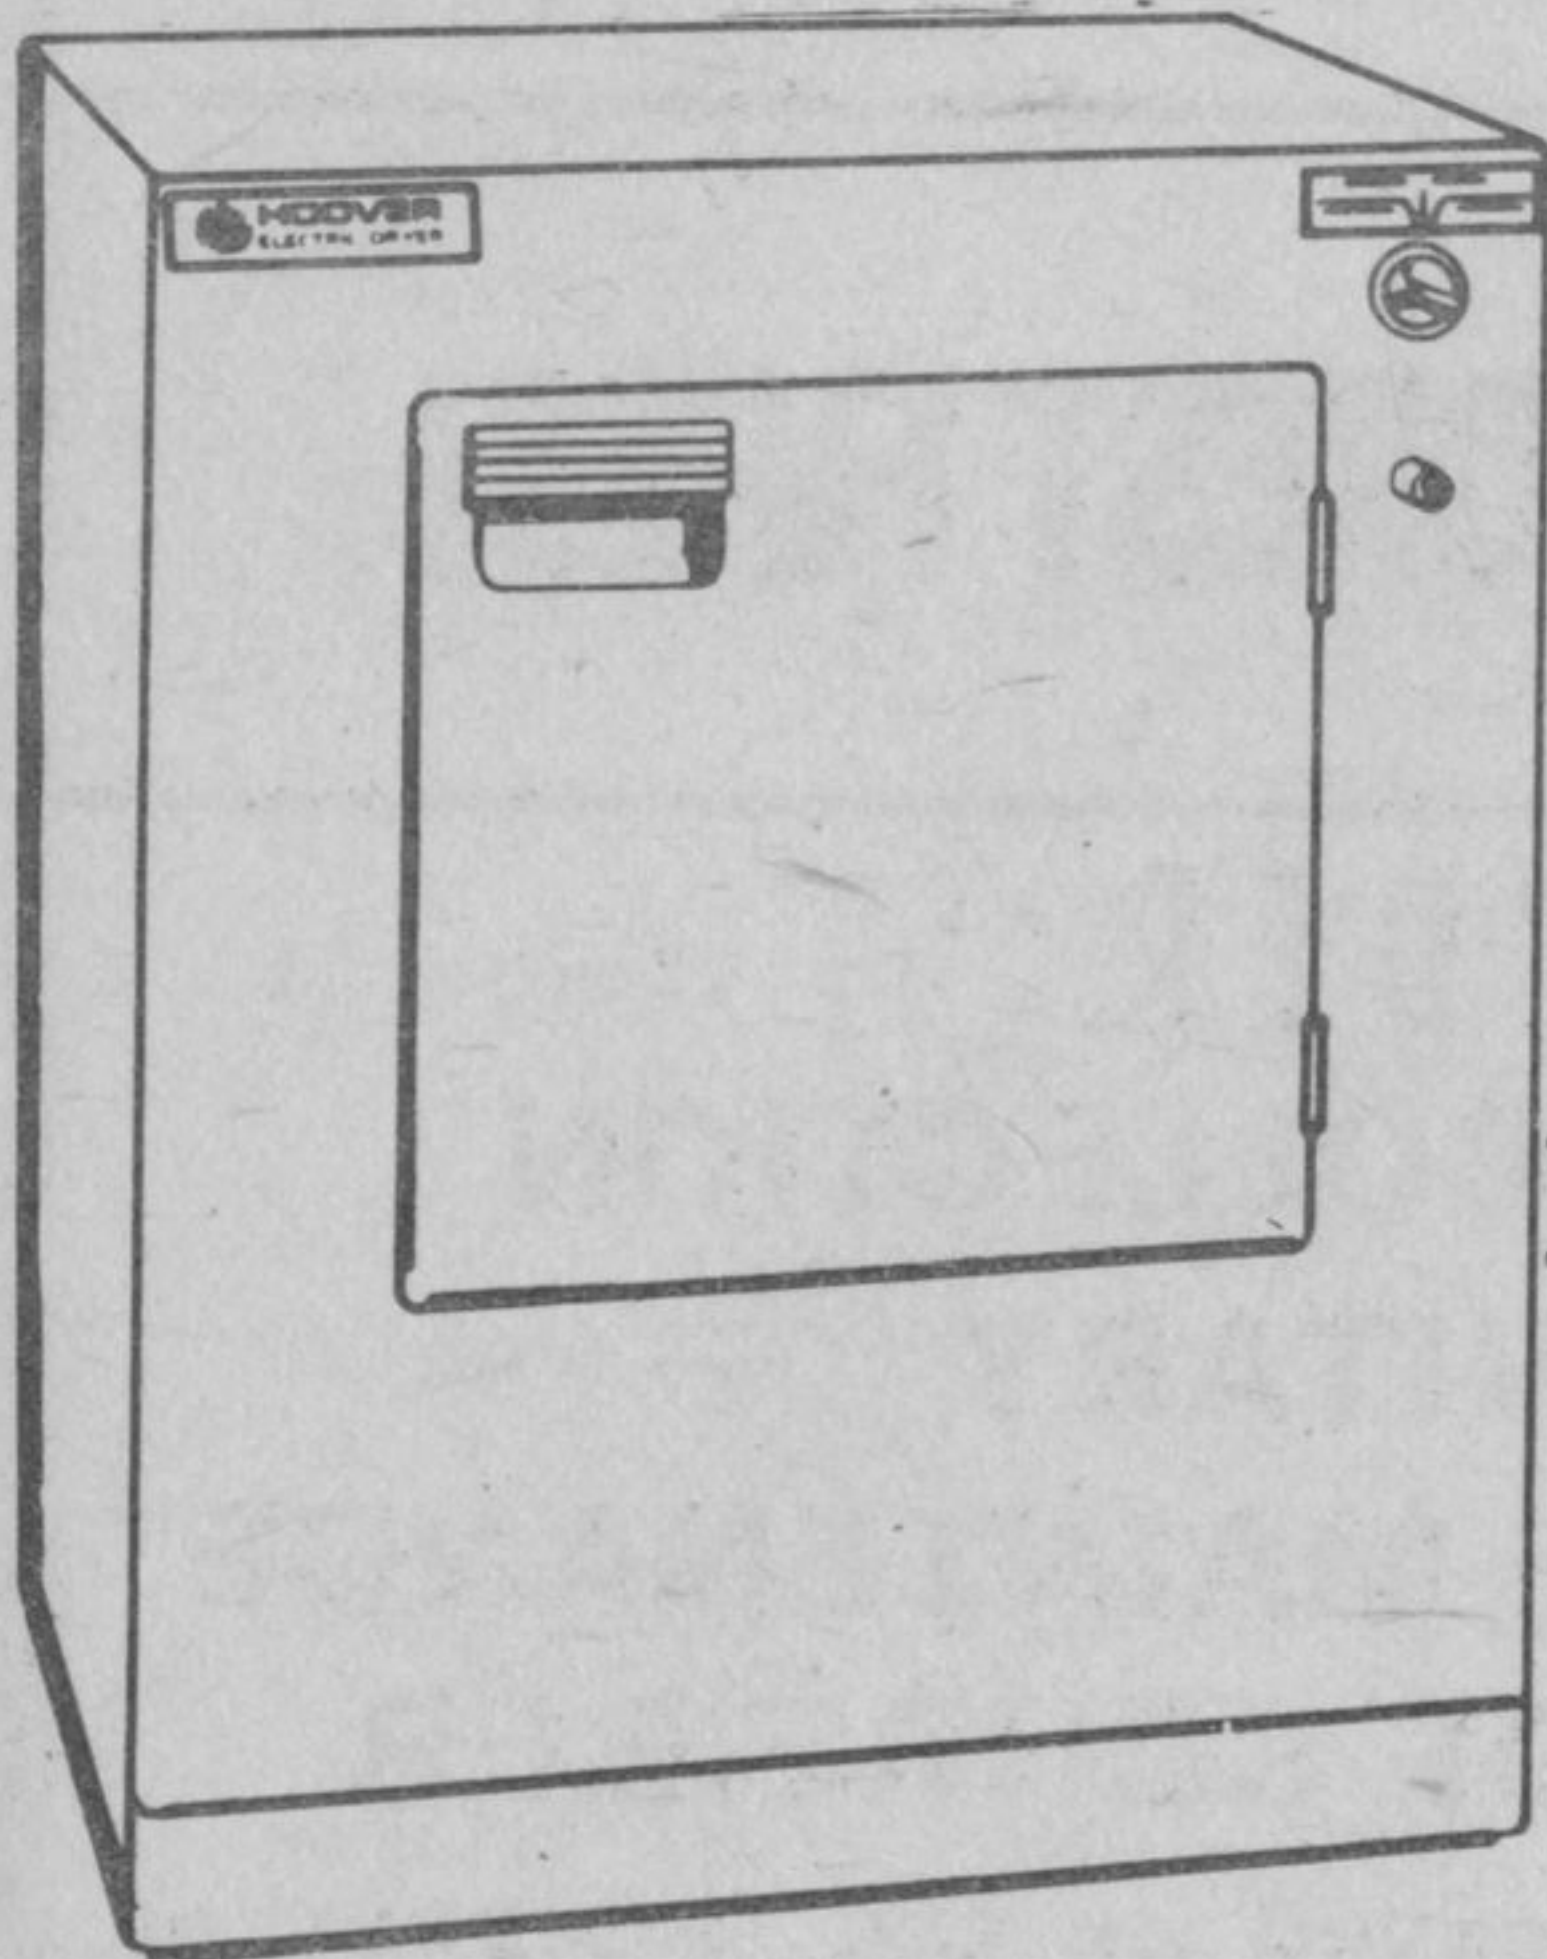

He was predeceased by his mother, Margaret Ord Gaulin, his father, Theophile Gaulin, both of East Angus, and a brother Clifford and sister Hattie.

The Masonic Lodge of Terrace Bay, held a service in the King Funeral Home, Schreiber, on Friday evening at 7 p.m.

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, formed a Guard of Honour at the Community Church, until the hour of service.

President, Forbes Cruickshank took charge of the Funeral service. Two hymns were sung, "Abide With Me" and "Breathe On Me, Breathe of God".
