

20TH ANNUAL FLOWER & VEGETABLE SHOW

The Terrace Bay Horticultural Society's 20th Annual Flower & Vegetable Show has passed into history. The rain and the bugs left enough flowers and vegetables to make a fairly good showing on Saturday, August 24th.

The judging chores were handled by Mr. Walter Chomniak of Thunder Bay.

The Junior Gardens program, chaired by Rudy Gerlach, showed us that there are still some very green little thumbs in town.

In the Garden Competition, Sabina Buhrmann won the United Paperworkers International Union Terrace Bay Local 665, award for the best garden in the Junior Section and her brother Oswald won the same award in the Senior Section.

Second prizes in the Garden Competition were sponsored by the Terrace Bay Credit Union and Nancy Gerlach was the Junior winner with George Hermes the Senior winner.

Third prizes were sponsored by the Horticultural Society and were won by Terry Lynn Daley in the juniors and Paul Gerlach in the senior.

At the show George Hermes won the Horticultural Society shield for capturing the highest aggregate points in the show.

The Loyal Order of Moose, Terrace Bay Lodge No. 1752, award for highest points accumulated by a girl went to Sabina Buhrmann, and by a boy - to George Hermes.

The Imperial Bank of Commerce award for the Outstanding Exhibit went to George Hermes for his vegetable display.

Other winners in the Junior Gardeners were: Sylvia Landry, Daryl Broughton, Donna DePaolo, Dean Roberts, Nancy Gerlach, Eleanor DePaolo, Wendy Broughton, David McBride, Greg Kostiuik, Oswald Buhrmann, Denis Landry, Paul Gerlach, Joan Hiebert, Andy Kostiuik, and Lori McBride.

In the adult section 12 exhibitors displayed approximately 300 entries.

Hyacinthe Landry was the Champion exhibitor and took home the Township of Terrace Bay trophy. Alice Farrow was runner-up.

Section winners were: Irene Steen for Houseplants; Hyacinthe Landry for Annuals; Alice Farrow for Biennials; Alice Farrow for Perennials; Victor Welsh for Dahlias and Gladiolus; H. Landry for Displays and Floral Arrangements; Alice Farrow for Roses and Outdoor Potted Plants; Alice Farrow for Collections; Eva Connors for Fruit, and Hyacinthe Landry for Vegetables.

The door prize, donated by Jim Mikus - Shell Agent, was won by Helen Brooks, and the African Violet raffle was won by Mr. Bernie Muhle of Cleveland, Ohio.

Another group of people who contributed greatly to the success of the show are the donors of prizes, all they win is our thanks and we hope that they will also win your patronage.

These very important people include: Scotty's Small Engine Shop, Costa's Foodmarket Cebrario's Hardware, Waghorn's Pharmacy,
