George Luscombe's production of TEN LOST YEARS, with original songs and music by Cedric Smith (of Perth County Conspiracy Does Not Exist fame) has been applauded by thousands, while winning the high regard of every critic who has seen it. Time Magazine calls it "Powerful and moving...a triumphant piece." The Toronto Star said "...most beautiful indeed... a spellbinding human document...a haunting kind of musical theatre, funny, insinuating, touching." "Absolutely marvelous, everything about it...", said Robin Phillips, the new Artistic Director of the Stratford Festival. "...I cried buckets and I laughed a lot." "Remarkable", said the Ottawa Citizen.

TEN LOST YEARS is something remarkable indeed. It is not simply beautiful theatre well crafted. It is very special theatre. Theatre that tells us about ourselves and our past as it entertains us and touches our hearts. TEN LOST YEARS is humorous, sad, moving and beautiful.

A multitude of Canadians endured or witnessed the "dirty thirties" with its unemployment, welfare, the endless search for work, the struggle for the family's fare, the beggar at the door and the parched cruelty of the prairies.

To this day, there are none among us not in some way touched by the Great Canadian Depression.

In TEN LOST YEARS the actors become real live human beings, who speak to us directly of an important stage in our past.

You will not easily forget this superb production. Its beauty will haunt you long after it has left your town or city. Don't miss TEN LOST YEAR!
