TENNIS COURT FENCING PROGRESSING

Due to the co-operation of the Kinsmen Club of Terrace Bay, the Terrace Bay Youth Group and other volunteers within the community, the Tennis Court fencing is progressing very well. Action photos taken by J. Dupas.

HEATING OIL PRICE SET

The Board of Management of the District of Thunder Bay Homes for the Aged held their regular monthly meeting on September 20th, 1974 at Pinewood Court with all members in attendance.

Accounts were approved for the two homes, Pinewood Court and Birchwood Terrace in the amount of $142,000 for the months of July and August. Progress billings were authorized to Barnett-McQueen for $21,000 and $7,000 payment is to be released on the Mechanical contract.

The new price for heating oil for Birchwood Terrace will cost 35.7 cents per gallon for the contract year of October 1, 1974 to September 30, 1975.

The board authorized the purchase of a colour television subject to ministry approval prior to any purchase. Bids will be sent out to local suppliers. Applications for eight residents were approved for admission.

The Management Contractors, Barnett-McQueen have informed the board that completion of the project will be made by September 27th, 1974. Electrical, mechanical and architectural inspections will be made as soon as the contracts are finished.
