

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Those lovely dark eyes are a reminder of Mickey's one Indian grandparent. The other grandparents were white. To round off his good looks, Mickey has black hair, olive skin and a lithe, sturdy build.

Mickey has just turned eight and is a healthy, active fellow who enjoys sports and is always eager to join in games. He likes skating and skiing and hockey, but water sports are his favorites. He is an excellent swimmer and has a natural aptitude for diving.

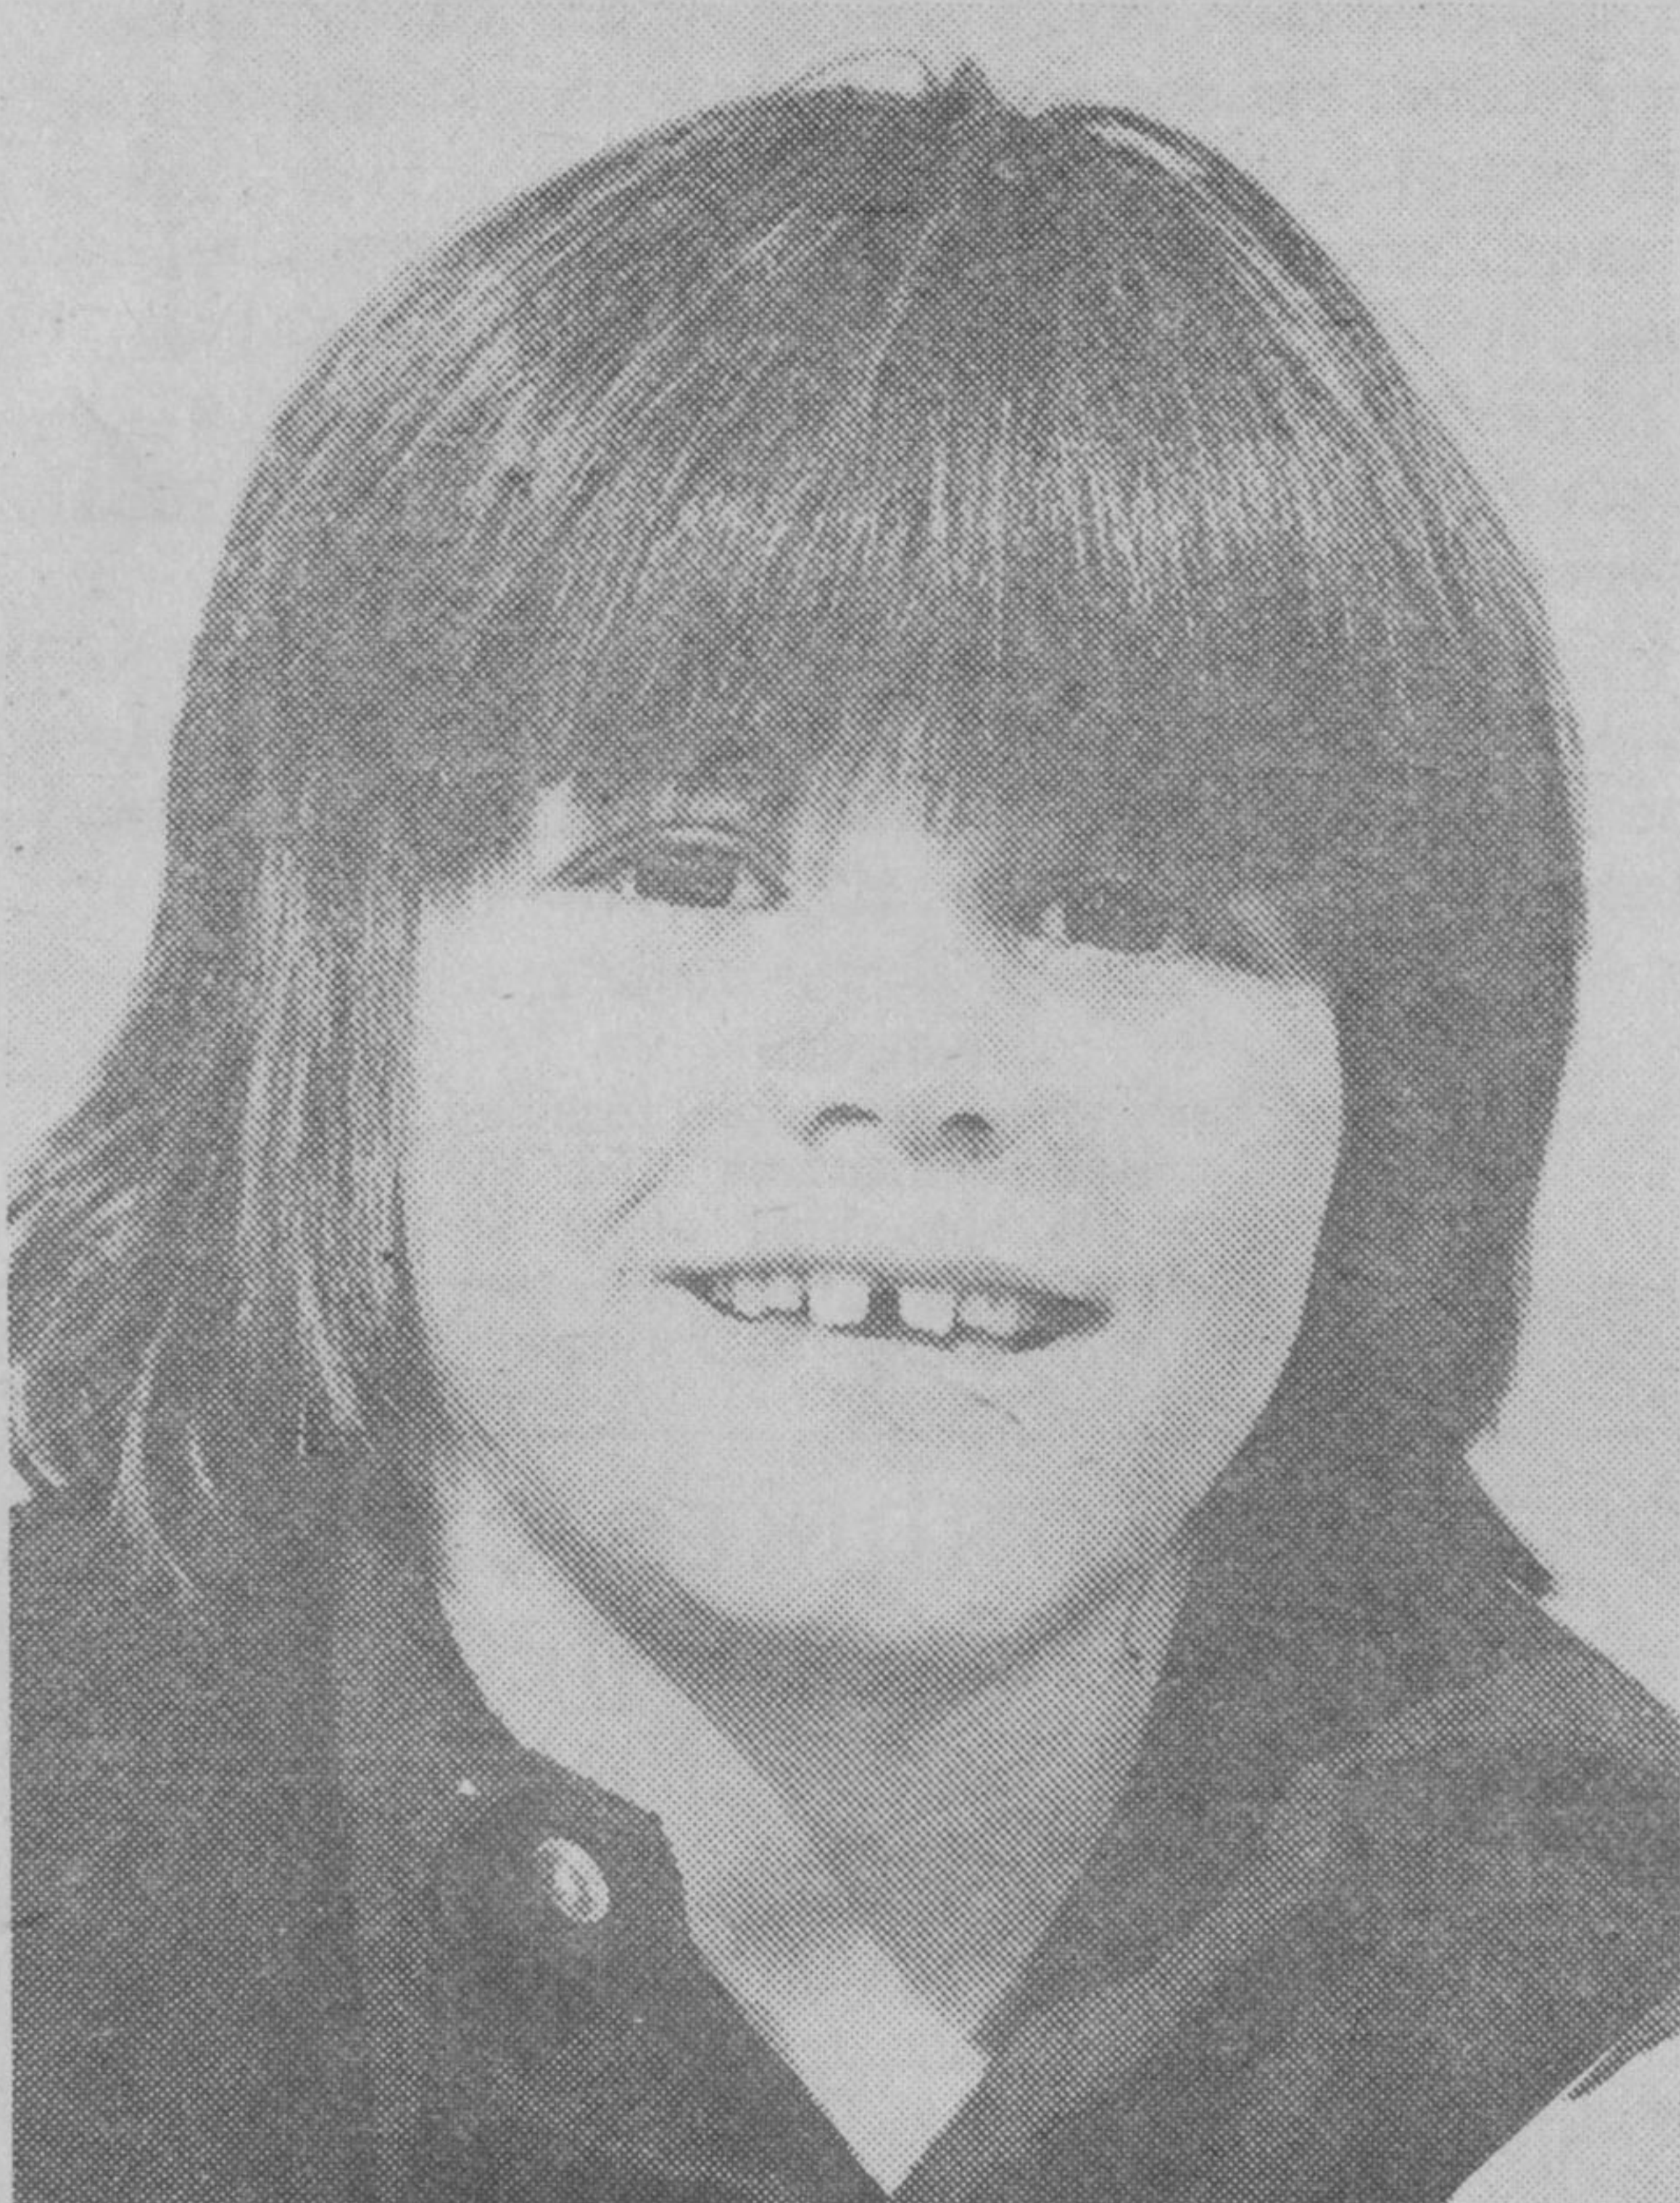

Because of unsettling experiences in his life, Mickey has had some emotional problems and has been living in a special treatment home. He has done well there and it is felt he is now ready to become part of a family.

At one time, psychological tests gave this lad a dull normal rating. Now it is considered he may be average or perhaps above.

Mickey likes music, especially singing. He is interested in carpentry. Last year he was a Beaver (a club for young boys) and now he intends to join Cubs.

Mickey needs warm understanding parents who will share activities with him. He will enjoy a brother or sister much younger or a good deal older but there should be no children close to him in age.

To inquire about adopting Mickey, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2.
