An automobile is something your son manages to drive into the garage on the last drop of gas.

SCHREIBER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

At their regular October meeting of the Schreiber Women's Institute, Mrs. Anne Todesco and members welcomed Reeve Harold McParland of Schreiber, guest speaker, who outlined the various civic projects which had been recently completed or were in progress at the present time. Some of these were the sewage system, medical centre, additions to the Public Library, and the arena rink as well as the Cook's Lake Dam and proposed new subdivision. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the Reeve for his informative address.

Members answered the roll call with a donation of canned fruit or pickles for Birchwood Terrace Home. One new member, Mrs. J. Spillane and special guest, Mrs. H. McParland were also welcomed by the president.

Current events such as increased car insurance and population in Canada were discussed.

Motto was "In youth we learn, in age we understand".

Financial report was presented by Mrs. C. Morris and card report by Mrs. W. Campbell.

Mrs. W. Clemens read the minutes and correspondence. A wreath was to be ordered for Remembrance Day ceremonies with Mrs. F. Fummerton laying the wreath. cont'd page 18
