

TERRACE BAY RECREATION DEPARTMENT WEEKLY REPORT

LEVEL I REFEREES CLINIC:

The opportunity has become available for anyone interested to take a Level I Referees Clinic in Terrace Bay on November 30th, December 1st, only if sufficient persons show an interest in taking the Clinic.

The Level I Clinic is open to anyone and deals with the basics of being a Referee or Linesman. In addition, sessions will be held on rule interpretation. Mr. George Tremblay of Marathon is available to conduct the Clinic. Cost of the Clinic is $1.00. Leave your name with either Len Pope, President of Minor Hockey or the Recreation Office.

If insufficient response is received, the Level I Clinic will be cancelled.

OLDTIMERS HOCKEY SESSIONS:

A reminder that ice time is being made available every Wednesday evening from 10-11 pm for those who wish to play "pick-up" hockey. This is very unstructured and gives you the opportunity to get in some exercise and play with a sponge puck. So far, eight names have been called into the Recreation Office. If you are not presently in a competitive hockey league and would welcome this type of hockey, we would like to hear from you. Call our office at 3542.

REPLACEMENT CASHIER REQUIRED:

Please refer to page II for an ad on Replacement Cashier. Apply in writing to: Terrace Bay Recreation Committee, Box 460, by this Friday, November 22nd.

TERRACE BAY WINTER CARNIVAL FOR '75???

At the time of this write-up, the results of an important Winter Carnival meeting were unknown. More about this next week.
