

L.A. Meeting - continued from page 19

Mrs. Daryl Davis, and her assistants Mrs. Wendy Martin and Mrs. Lorraine Weaver, were congratulated on the amount they had raised in the Poppy Campaign.

Mrs. Barbara Smart agreed to carry on the weekly social evenings, and Mrs. Wendy Martin volunteered to convene the decorating committee, assisted by Mrs. Lorraine Weaver.

Mrs. Avila Richardson will be in charge of draws.

Mesdames Isabel Delaronde, Charlotte Ross, and Earling Johnson agreed to act as telephone committee.

Christmas gifts to former local residents now in district homes were planned. An exchange of gifts will be held at the January meeting when a social hour will follow the business meeting.

Meeting nights will again be placed on the Kinette calendar for the year's events.

Mrs. Avila Richardson, treasurer, and Mrs. Bea McCuaig, secretary, will prepare the financial statement for the Branch.

Several members volunteered to assist the committee for the children's Christmas party.

It was agreed that in future a president, re-elected, and so unable to receive her past president pin, will be presented with a corsage at a formal occasion.

Dr. Brock Kirkpatrick of Toronto, was home last week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kirkpatrick and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, both in hospitals. Dr. Kirkpatrick, presently on the teaching faculty of Wellesley Hospital, is a dermatologist, now setting up his practice in Brampton.

His time in Schreiber was spent in taking pictures of the local area, particularly, of Lake Superior vistas, which he felt, had not been done justice to, in a film he had seen of Northwestern Ontario.

Dan Power of McKenzie, B.C. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Power - visiting also his other brother John Power and other relations in town.

Mrs. Ann Moore is being welcomed back by her old friends, returning from Dryden to make her home in Schreiber.
