TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

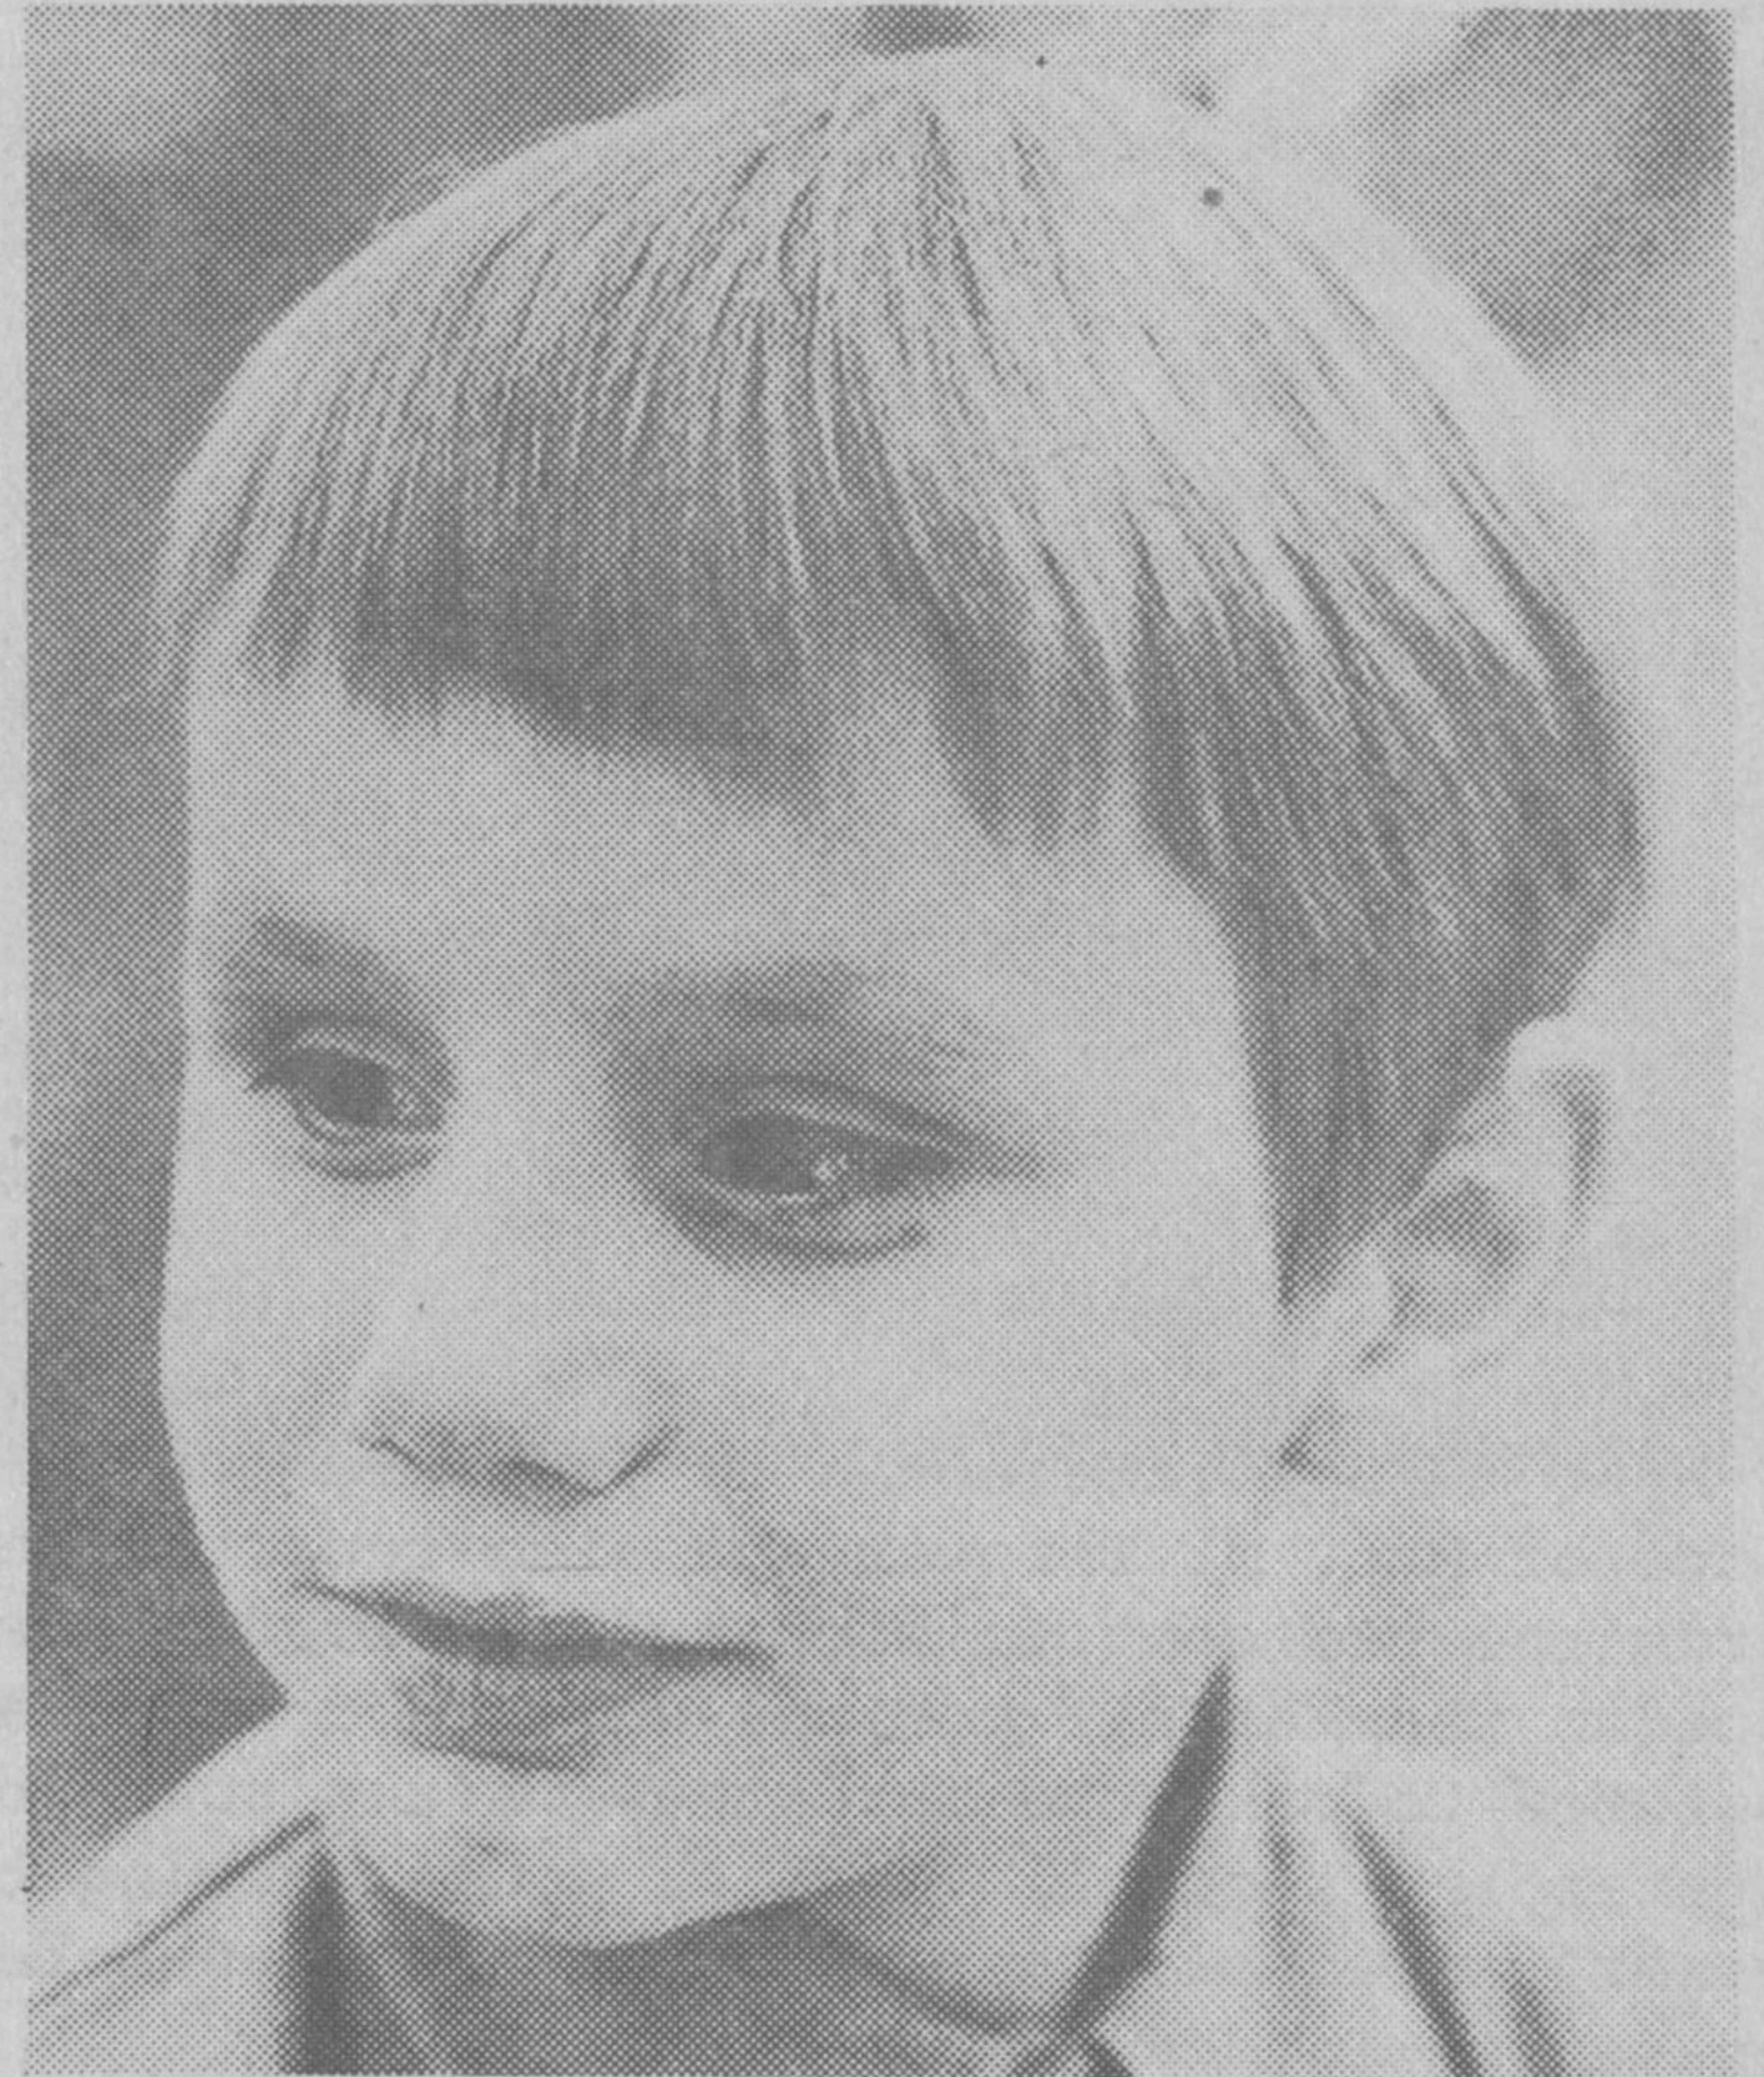

Kirk is seven, a lively busy boy with brown hair and dark eyes. He is in excellent health but has very poor vision because of detached retinas in both eyes. Glasses will not help and doctors feel surgery will not help either.

Kirk copes well with his disability, doing all the things other children do — running, climbing, reading and watching television. He is in a special class because of his eye problem and will continue to need that kind of special facility.

Adults find Kirk an affectionate, interesting child. He is popular with children. He has a great imagination and his school principal says he is very bright in some areas. He loves painting and music.

Kirk needs a mother and father who will give him much love and stimulation and will be able to help him deal with his visual handicap.

To inquire about adopting Kirk, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, consult your local Children's Aid Society.
