

Party - continued from page 21

the arrival of Santa sandwiches and served to the children.

St. Martin gives a long look at Santa his twin sister Jennifer appears more excited in a gift at the Legion's Christ-

(left) and Kerri McColeman delighted to see Santa.

ADDITIONAL SPACE REQUIRED AT LIBRARY

700 books are now in the shelves of Schreiber Public Library, selected from the library, by Mrs. Dodie Kirkpatrick, librarian, and Mrs. Esther Walker, member of the Board of Trustees, in a regular exchange meeting held their regular meeting on January 16th, approving the payment of accounting $558.00 and noting a $1570 exemption on their assessment. The town council, in agreement with the library, are presently concerned over the former doctor's office premises at the library, and the Board decided to order additional shelving, to better display their books in the additional space.

Mrs. Walker reported on the Regional Conference held in October, updating the Board of the newest services available and on future plans of the Northwest Library System.

With the additional space available the trustees are happily planning a more systematic display of the many subjects they offer.

Particularly gratifying is the across-the-country, book-lending now available, and the new patrons of the library, now loyal members of public libraries because of this advantage.

Obviously, Schreiber Public Library, is looking forward to 1975 - with expanded quarters, to serve their public and, finally, able to display their excellent collection.

NOTICE
1975 DOG TAGS

are now available at the Municipal Office.
W. Hanley,
Clerk-Treasurer.

W.I. HOLD MEETING AT BIRCHWOOD TERRACE

The Schreiber Women's Institute held their regular December meeting in Birchwood Terrace Home, with Mrs. Anne Todesco presiding and several of those in the Home welcomed as guests.

Mrs. Wesley Clemens presented a corsage to Mrs. Jessie Macadam, resident in the Home, and Life Member of the local Institute.

Members answered roll call by presenting cards and gifts for the residents.

Motto for the meeting 'Christmas is not only for children'.

It was decided to defer the money draw until the February meeting.

Mrs. Joe Campbell reported sending a rose bowl to Mrs. Eleanor O'Connor while she was in McCausland Hospital.

The Nipigon Institute sent their regrets in being unable to attend, saying they could not attend afternoon meetings.

Informative literature from the Consumer and Corporate Affairs Dept. was studied, it dealing with Christmas shopping for food, children's toys and winter clothing.

V. Mazzone, of the McCausland Hospital Board was the guest speaker, giving details of plans for the new building and the need for contributions to the building fund, by both organizations and individuals.

continued page 28