

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

2, a healthy, active boy who loves the outdoors. He to live on a farm. In a farm foster home he joined ically in everything from gardening to feeding the built, Jim has brown eyes, dark hair and fair freckled needs glasses for near-sightedness but often con- forgets them. He is keen on sports, playing hockey, and football. He's not a star athlete but is always ready s progressed from opportunity class to the regular team where he is receiving special education in Grade marks are excellent and he enjoys school.

t, polite Jim needs parents who will encourage his new school without demanding more than he can achieve. good if there are other children in Jim's adopting re about adopting Jim, please write to Today's Child, of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, consult Children's Aid Society.

HOPES FOR A FARM HOME

O'BRIEN

Funeral services for the late Leonard R. O'Brien age 60 years of Schreiber who died on Thursday, January 9th, were held on Saturday, January 11th at 11 a.m. in Holy Angel's Roman Catholic Church with Rev. Fr. Meyer officiating. Interment was in Schreiber Cemetery.

Prayers were said in the Funeral Home Friday evening. Mr. O'Brien was predeceased by his wife the late Beatrice McBride in January 1973. He is survived by two sons Patrick at home and Russell of Red Lake, five daughters, Catherine (Mrs. N. Lemieux) Schreiber, Carol (Mrs. D. McDonald) Markstay; Lenore (Mrs. B. Duncan) Wawa, Sharon (Mrs. S. Liff) Cochenour and Mary Lynn at home. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, two brothers Thomas John of Sturgeon Falls and Sylvester of Chapeau, Que. and four sisters Madeline O'Brien, Mary (Mrs. C. Gleeson) and Beatrice (Mrs. A. Jones) all of Pembroke and Ann (Mrs. J. Marcotte) Chichester, Que., as well as several other relatives in the district.

The honorary pallbearers were Charles Boon, Darcy McGuire, Frank Driscoll, Austin Cosgrove, William Mullins and George A. Scott. Active pallbearers included Harry Duggan, John Paske, Tom Webb, George J. Scott, Clarence McBride and Lorne McBride.

Among those attending from out of town besides the immediate family were Mrs. B. Hass, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. J. Paske and Mr. and Mrs. Theo Ryan of Thunder Bay; Mr. C. Gleeson, Pembroke; Mr. and Mrs. L. McBride and children, Mr. and Mrs. B. McBride of Terrace Bay; Mr. and Mrs. C. McBride and Judy of White River.

SCHREIBER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE NEWS

Mrs. Anne Todesco presided at the regular meeting of the Schreiber Women's Institute on January 14th. After opening exercises members answered the roll call with a New Year's resolution and had a lively discussion on current events. Some matters were the planned Telethon for Cystic Fibrosis, rise of freight rates, cabinet shuffle in Ontario government and the edible qualities of Mexican jumping beans.

Mrs. John Morris gave the financial report and Mrs. J. Campbell had sent many cheer cards and Christmas cards to the sick and shut-ins.

Several notes of appreciation were read as well as an invitation from the Slate River Women's Institute to attend an open meeting continued page 11 .....