the issuance of a birth certificate, you still have a good chance to obtain suitable proof of age.

The Census Division of Statistics Canada, Ottawa, KIA OT6, maintains complete records of census enumerations going back more than 100 years. Write to this address and ask for a form called "Application and Authorization for a Search of Census Records".

This form, which must be signed by you personally, authorizes the Census people to go through the records and find an occasion on which you were enumerated in earlier census.
